

1958 School Tax Rate Set At New Maximum $1.50

Valuations Fail to Reach Expected Level in District

Tax rate for Hamlin Independent School District will be the maximum $1.50 per $100 valuation. It was announced following the Monday night meeting of the board of trustees. The maximum was raised from $1.25 in an election on May 10. Previous rate was $1.25 per $100 valuation.

In announcing the tax rate at the maximum $1.50 the school board explained that property valuations had failed to reach the anticipated level in conditions recently compiled. Total renditions amounted to $16,200,000 for 1958. Old property valuations in the district dropped more than $1,000,000 from last year, it is pointed out. School costs have been mounting—along with other costs of all kinds—for several years, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, who said the school had operated at a deficit during the past two sessions.

Revenues likewise have been decreasing, principally due to slackening of oil operations in the territory along with all other oil operations in the state.

Because of the favorable economic condition of the Hamlin region in the Hamlin section because of high industrial employment and other economic factors, the economic index set by the state Board of Education has cut state assistance to schools here. The district has lost thousands of dollars in aid in this category, Cook points out.

Another factor that caused the board to set the tax rate at the maximum was the need for higher bond sinking fund requirements scheduled in begin three years from now. The bond sinking fund will increase $8,000 per year in 1961.

Apportionment of revenues from the $1.50 rate were allotted by the board at $1.20 for maintenance and 30 cents for bonds. Last year's $1.25 revenue was allocated $1.06 for maintenance and 20 cents for bonds.

Abilene Evangelist To Fill Baptist Pulpit

Rev. Charlie Carter, evangelist of Abilene, will preach at both morning and evening worship services at the First Baptist Church Sunday. It is announced by the pastor, Rev. Calvin Bailey. Rev. Carter is well known over the state as an outstanding evangelist.

Pastor Bailey and his family are on vacation. They are visiting with relatives in Virginia and other Eastern states. Bailey is a native of Virginia.

Who's New This Week

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Rodgers of Fort Worth became parents of a second child on July 3, who was born in a Fort Worth hospital. After tipping the scales at six pound five ounces, the little mist accepted the name Gerald Lynn. Mrs. Rodgers is the former Winnie Gruben. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rodgers of Hamlin.

Three new citizens have been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and two girls, they are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rangel arrived July 8. After having his weight checked at seven pounds eight ounces, he was given the label Jack Lee.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Williamson of Roby arrived July 9. Linda Gayle balanced the scales at five pounds 11 ounces.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Davis was born July 10. She weighed seven pounds six ounces and has accepted the name Judy Lynn.

LAUNCH INDUSTRIAL PROGRAM—Governor Price Daniel (left) and E. B. Germany, chairman of the Texas Industrial Commission, hold a copy of "A Plan of Action to Win New Industry for Your Community." This guide book to assist cities and communities of Texas in developing and presenting an industrial program has been mailed by the commission to all Chambers of Commerce, mayors, county judges and newspapers of the state.

Plans Shaping for Fair and Rodeo at Roby August 28-30

Plans are taking shape for the annual Fisher County Fair and Rodeo, scheduled at Roby on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28, 29 and 30, according to officials of the show.

Leaders for the fair, who were in Hamlin Monday, said full three days of exhibits of livestock, farm products, needlecraft and culinary products are scheduled this year. Heretofore only one day of these exhibits have been staged.

Three night performances have been scheduled for the rodeo, which has come to be recognized as one of the best in West Texas.

A complete fair catalog and rodeo handbook, which will be printed by The Herald plant, will be out in a few days. Ads in the catalog were being sold by committees first of the week.

NEW WIRE CHIEF for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hamlin at Edward G. Holzmann (above). He replaces E. W. (Andy) Anderson, who recently was made installation foreman at Abilene. Holzmann comes from Midland. He has been with the phone concern for nine years.

Continued good interest was manifested by Hamlin area cotton farmers last Wednesday in the second in the series of short courses being conducted by the vocational agriculture department of Hamlin High School on identification and control of cotton insects.

T. C. Blankinship, VA instructor who arranged the short courses at Hamlin, said last week's session featured field trips to the Bill Matchett and Orville Buntin places north of town, where several types of harmful and beneficial insects were identified.

Assisting with the program are E. L. Tiner, coordinator from the agriculture education department of Texas A. & M.; and H. A. Turney, entomology specialist from A. & M.

Two more short course sessions will be conducted later this month, Blankinship announced. They are set for Monday, July 28 and Wednesday, July 30.

Naming of Queen and Candidate Speaking Set at FB Meeting

Election of a Jones County Farm Bureau Queen and a candidate speaking will feature the gathering Saturday evening of Farm Bureau members and visitors at Anson, it is announced by Charlie Gregory, president of the county unit.

The gathering will be at 7:30 o'clock in the Anson High School auditorium. The public is invited. Dub Dowling of an Abilene TV station will be master of ceremonies.

Candidates for the Queen must be the daughter of an FB member, between the ages of 16 and 22 years and unmarried. The girl named as county Queen will go to a district meeting in September, and district winner will go to the state Farm Bureau convention at Corpus Christi in November.

Mrs. W. L. Boyd Taken To Home in Hamlin

Mrs. W. L. Boyd, injured with her husband in an automobile-truck collision near Haskell on April 27, was moved to the family residence on Southwest Avenue A Saturday from the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Boyd sustained serious head and leg injuries, and has been in bed constantly since the accident. She still must remain in bed for several weeks. Mr. Boyd has been out of the hospital several weeks, but is hobbling on crutches.

Insect Infestation Is Lowest in Years

The cotton insect infestation count in Jones County is probably the lowest for this time of year in many years, according to Kirby Clayton, county agent.

Compiled reports from Clayton and Bill Moore, veterans' vocational instructor, reveal that flea-hopper infestation count ranged from five to 10 per cent in most fields; thrips infestations run from 50 to 60 per cent; bollworms range from four to five per cent in fields of older cotton to zero in younger cotton. Grasshoppers are doing damage to fields of young cotton adjoining fence rows and pasture land. Rabbits continue to damage stands of both old and young cotton over the area.

County Agent Clayton recommends that farmers keep check on their cotton during the next two weeks, since this time is ideal for a heavy build-up of fleahoppers and bollworms. The recent rains and wind seem to have destroyed the old crop of fleahoppers in the fields, but the chances are that another crop will be present in the next two to three weeks, Clayton declares.

Several Vacancies in School Faculty Noted

Several vacancies remain to be filled in the teaching staffs of Hamlin schools, it is reported this week by Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Mrs. Mae Hennington, second grade teacher, has retired and no replacement has been named. Mrs. Bobbie Moore, wife of the pastor of Faith Methodist Church has been named a teacher in the elementary school. Anne Harrell of Canyon has been named as a high school English teacher to succeed Mrs. A. A. Wade, who has resigned. Charles Wyly has resigned to take a place in the Walnut Springs school.

Hardin-Simmons Exes and Friends Told About Huge Plans for Expansion

Greatly improved campus and facilities for Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene were envisioned by ex-students and other friends of the school in the Hamlin territory were guests last Thursday evening at a fellowship dinner at the oil mill guest house given by trustees of the university.

Exes and friends were present from Hamlin, McCauley, Rotan, Roby, Anson, Stamford, Aspermont, Leaders and Haskell.

During a fellowship period preceding the dinner, attendants were shown a panorama of the H-SU campus, showing in miniature the proposed additions of a new university chapel, student union building, fine arts buildings, dormitory sections and other improvements planned in a $2,500,000 improvement program for the pioneer Baptist institution. Architects' drawing for the chapel and student union buildings, which already are underway, were shown in colored murals.

Members of the faculty and other friends of the school spoke following the dinner. Tate May, Hamlin banker, presided for the opening session. He presented Truett Latimer of Abilene, director of alumni affairs for the fund raising. Speakers on the program included Sammy Baugh, head football coach at H-SU; Bill Ledbetter, H-SU athletic director; Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president emeritus; G. W. Briggs, fund raising manager; Charles M. McLaughlin of Fort Worth, chairman of the ex-student committee; and C. M. Caldwell, major benefactor of the school; and Wayne Evans of Fort Worth, executive committee chairman of the campaign, who is business manager of Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary.

Hamlin Schools Set to Start on September 2

Start of the 1958-59 term for the four Hamlin white schools has been set for Tuesday, September 2, it was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook. Pre-registration of high school students will be conducted the preceding Thursday and Friday so that class schedules may be arranged.

If the cotton crop looks favorable, and laborers are needed in the area, DePriest Colored School will probably open early in August in order to dismiss about a month during the fall cotton picking season, it is announced.

John Richey to Be on Abilene TV Program

John Richey, son of Mrs. Jack Richey, and a Hamlin High School junior, will be among area boys participating in a TV program on the Texas Boys' State over Station KREC-TV this (Thursday) evening at 9:45 o'clock, channel 9. Young Richey recently attended Boys' State demonstration at the Texas capital city of Austin. He was sponsored by Hamlin Rotary Club under auspices of the Sylvester American Legion post.

IS AMERICAN WORLD PRESTIGE LOSING ITS FORCE?

The violent attack made against Vice President Nixon during his South American tour came as a profound shock to the American people. They happened right on our doorstep. And they were symptomatic of an anti-American feeling which has found ominous expression in many corners of the world—the Middle East, Africa, Europe.

Just how deep is the "hate America" emotion—and what are its causes? Newsweek addressed that question to its correspondents around the world. And the gist of their replies are summed up in its issue of May 26.

First of all, there is an almost incredible amount of ignorance about this country abroad. Newsweek says: "Millions, especially in Asia, are convinced that most Americans are rich beyond an opium addict's dream. Many think that negroes still exist in a near slave state in this country—and that is extremely important in a world in which two-thirds of all people belong to colored races. Great numbers have been sold the idea that American business is imperialistic and is interested only in ruthless exploitation."

Much of the existing anti-Americanism stems from circumstances beyond our control. The fact that we are rich and powerful breeds envy. Moreover, as the magazine puts it: "... much of the free world is beset by controversies of such magnitude that any position the U. S. takes on any of them is certain to displease millions of people somewhere."

There is, in some circles, the distrust of American leadership—a feeling that it has grown flabby and indecisive. In this area a dilemma of an extremely tough nature has arisen. Newsweek says: "On one hand, even our friends think that the development of H-bombs and missile bases smacks of saber rattling. On the other, there is a growing apprehension that we are not strong enough to meet the Soviets in a showdown."

Other influences beside controversial matters of high policy have contributed to distorted views of America abroad. One is the American motion picture—our movies account for 60 per cent of the whole world's screen time. Foreign viewers tend to take everything they see at face value—and fantasies thus become fact in their minds.

What is the answer to the anti-Americanism problem? Newsweek offers one, in three-faceted form. First, the magazine says, we need a more far-sighted foreign policy that will deal with troubles before they reach the crisis stage. Second, both government and private individuals should more carefully consider the implications of what we say and do. Third, there should be a more convincing formula which will dramatize what America is really like. Then Newsweek adds one more thought: "Something else that Americans need to do about their image abroad is to relax about it and come to terms with the idea that, in a world seething with discontent, we can't expect everyone to like us."

Have You a Friend?

A friend is a person who is for you always, under all circumstances. He never investigates you. He likes you just as you are. He does not alter you. He likes your success, and your failure endears him more. He is better than a lover, because he is never jealous. He wants nothing from you except that you be yourself. He is the one being with whom you can feel safe.

With him you can utter your heart, its badness and its goodness. Like the shade of a great tree in the noonday heat is a friend. Like the home port with your country's flag flying after a long journey is a friend. A friend is an impregnable citadel of refuge in the strife of existence.

It is he that keeps alive your faith in human nature, that makes you believe that it is a good universe. He is the antidote to despair, the elixir of hope, the tonic for depression. You give to him without reluctance and borrow from him without embarrassment. When you are vigorous and spirited, you like to take your pleasure with him; when you are sick you want to see him; when you are dying you want him near you.

Setting Our Sights High

You have a dollar, we have a dollar, we swap; now you have our dollar, we have yours, and we are no better off.

You have an idea, we have an idea, we swap; now you have two ideas, and we have two ideas, and that's the difference.

There's another difference: A dollar does only so much; it buys so many potatoes and no more. An idea that fits your purpose may keep you in potatoes all your life, and it may incidentally build you a place to eat them in.

Right Will Come Out

If a thing is old, it is a sign that it was fit to live. Old families, old customs, old styles survive because they are fit to survive. The guarantee of continuity is quality. Submerge the good in a flood of the new, and the good will come back to join the good which the new brings with it.

Old-fashioned hospitality, old-fashioned politeness, old-fashioned honor in business had qualities of survival. These will come back—Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker.

Deeds of the Day

The only time we have to us is furnished us today.

We must not waste while moments flee for time does not delay.

The hours of day are given once, so we must be prepared.

To use our talents for the best; no effort must be spared.

When door of day is closed by night, and darkness hides the sun,

We then may count the pleasures gained from deeds which were well done.—Anon.

Editorial of the Week

THE PRICE OF RED INK

In an official report of staff of Senate-House committee on taxation predicts:

1. That the government's deficit on June 30, the end of this fiscal year, will be just under $4,000,000,000.

2. That the deficit a year hence will be more than $11,000,000,000.

So the government, between now and July 1, 1959, will be spending $15,000,000,000 it does not have. It will borrow this money. And the estimates are more likely to be underdone than excessive.

This is bad news for Mama and her market basket. It is bad news for sellers as well as buyers, because high prices restrain buying, as we lately have been seeing. This hurts business, chops off jobs and brings on exactly what has been troubling us in recent months—a recession.

Because, as everyone now knows, government deficits and borrowing make inflation. And inflation, sooner or later, wrecks our economic health. It is the surest way to national destruction. Look at France. Or China.

We have been going this way since World War II. And we have had three gentle recessions to serve as warnings. The last recession we rode out with comparative ease, because the Eisenhower administration resisted the clamor of big spending "cures." The resistance this time has been less stout. As a result the biggest deficit since 1945 faces the country in the next 13 months.

And there will be only one way to pay for it—in more dollars each worth less. Taxes are hard on the pocketbooks. But inflation is poison. It is also the price we pay for red ink in Washington.—The Fort Worth Press.

RECALLING

Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 30 years ago included the following, being news briefs taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 13, 1928:

W. L. Fletcher Jr. and family and B. H. Gardner returned Monday from a 10-day trip to the Rio Grande Valley. Fletcher is secretary of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers Association, which met at Harlingen.

Development of the Northeast Fisher County oil field, eight miles west of Hamlin, is going steadily forward with a concerted drilling campaign.

Billy Bryant was installed this week as president of the Hamlin Rotary Club, succeeding Tate May. Henry O. Cassle is new vice president and Elmer Feagan is secretary.

Men's summer suits are advertised on sale at Bryant-Link Company at $13.90 and up.

Bank statements of Hamlin's two banks this week show deposits at the Farmers & Merchants National Bank at $434,734.52 and at the First National Bank at $370,678.90.

Gladys Cassle left Thursday for the Texas girls' camp near Glenrose, where she will be gone for two weeks acting as dramatics counselor.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Items of interest in the news 20 years ago at Hamlin included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 15, 1938:

Nine Hamlin young men left Saturday afternoon for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where they will take a month's military training. They were Edwin Tims, Raymond Elkins, James Steed, John Thomas Durham, Durwood Locke, George Dean, Frank Hillyer and Raymond Garrett.

Mrs. Tom Stapleton and son, Bynum, of Sparsburg, came Saturday to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Van Huling, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snead of Amarillo were visiting friends in Hamlin this week. Snead formerly was in the compress business at Hamlin.

Little Anna Margaret McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McBride, was operated on last Friday for appendicitis at Abilene Hospital.

TEN YEARS AGO.

From the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 23, 1948, the following news briefs of 10 years ago are reprinted:

Normal interest is being manifested by voters of the Hamlin territory in the election Saturday.

The Mighty Mice, baseball team composed of Hamlin youths being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has won two out of the three games played so far. Johnnie Agnew, farming southeast of town, brought in the first maize of the season Tuesday. The harvest this summer is expected to be good.

Mrs. Bud Trotter and Priscilla are visiting relatives this week at Odessa.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Files of five years ago reveal the following news items of the community five years ago, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 24, 1953:

New dressing rooms and ticket booths at the Pied Pied Stadium of Hamlin High School, costing $18,000, will get underway next week by T. E. Shelburne & Sons, contractors.

Crops in the area are growing fast following recent rains, but now the threat of insects hangs over the crops.

Hamlin telephone workers last Friday participated in a regional vote on strike proposals. The vote overwhelmingly favored the proposal, but no strike plans have as yet been announced, The Herald understands.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News events in the area of one year ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Herald dated July 18, 1957:

Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department has answered only 14 fire calls this year the first six months of the year, with insured losses of $2,247.81, reports Fire Chief Jack White.

Insects are posing a dire threat to cotton crops in the area, many farmers are busy poisoning the pests.

Mike Brandon, Harry Bob Martin and Davey Weaver, Hamlin FFA boys, and Harold Eades, one of the advisors, are attending the state FFA convention at Fort Worth this week.

Texas Tideland Stull Is Not Settled, Congressman Burleson Reminds Area

Surprising as it may seem, the old issue of the Texas tidelands is not settled, reminds Congressman Omar Burleson in his weekly news release to The Herald. The release continues: In 1953, after 16 years of effort, the Congress finally passed the so-called tidelands bill.

This supposedly settled the proposition that when Texas came into the union, it reserved for itself 10½ miles into the Gulf of Mexico. Ordinarily, the ownership of a state extends three miles seaward. But the 10½-mile boundary ownership was written into the law by the Congress, and confirmed the annexation agreement by which Texas became a state of the union.

The federal government, in violation of this provision admitting Texas as a state, contended that the Gulf of Mexico came under federal jurisdiction beyond the three-mile limit. The United States Supreme Court upheld this contention on the part of the federal government.

In 1953, the Congress supposedly settled the jurisdictional question by clearly confirming Texas' claim to 10½ miles.

Now, the attorney general of the United States has filed a 425-page brief, again contesting Texas' title to the submerged lands between the three-mile and the 10½-mile limit.

President Eisenhower clearly stated his sentiment in favor of Texas at the time the Congress acted in 1953. It becomes a strange paradox that his attorney general now files a suit on behalf of the federal government to set aside what the Congress has clearly stated to be the law. The attorney general claims that the tidelands act passed in 1953 is not clear. The case is to be argued before the Supreme Court of the United States some time next fall.

In the meantime, since 1953 the state school fund of Texas has collected approximately $75,000,000 from oil companies exploring and producing oil within the 10½-mile zone.

The drilling for oil in the gulf is a tremendously expensive operation. For this and other reasons, exploration has been very slow, but the potential is great. With a healthy domestic oil industry, development in the near future should be much greater. This means, of course, that the tidelands will in time become even more valuable and more important to the state of Texas.

Regardless of the values involved, the principle is even greater. The contest of the rightful claim of the state of Texas is a violation on the part of the federal government of its agreement with the state of Texas. If the federal government had a legal right prior to 1953 to the submerged lands of Texas, certainly it has had no right since. The act of the attorney general will, of course, be resisted with every possible effort.

Two-Hour Film to Be Seen July 24 at Nazarene Church

Presentation of an outstanding religious film, "Wine of Morning," has been set for next Thursday evening at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene, according to the pastor, Rev. Bill Hanna. The two-hour, full color picture is based on photographs by Bob Jones Jr. It was prepared by Bob Jones University at Greenville, South Carolina.

Arrangements for the film were made by Norma Lee Garrett, Hamlin girl who has been a student at the South Carolina school.

The story of the film is of the bloodshed and shipwreck of intrigue, of murder, of love and redemption. It is a panorama of exciting scenes moving in flashing color from Nazareth to Cana, of Galilee, Capernaum, Jerusalem, Cyprus, Antioch and Ceresarea. With its huge cast, magnificent settings and gorgeous costumes, it is undoubtedly the greatest spectacle in the history of evangelical films, Hanna asserts.

The main purpose of education is to teach people to think.

Old Glory Section Gets Good Rains, Other News Notes from That Vicinity

By Clarice Leverett.

Rains fell over this area last Sunday morning with amounts ranging from two inches to 2.6 inches on the Lynn Flowers farm, five miles southeast of Old Glory. The moisture was greatly appreciated and will benefit the feed and cotton crops, which were badly in need of rain. Farmers, despite dry weather in June, no rain and insects, have been spraying their cotton to control insects.

An Open Letter to Jerry Holleman President, Texas AFL-CIO Delegate-At-Large, DOT

Dear Mr. Holleman:

Do you really mean what you said publicly last Sunday?

Do you really mean that successful men shouldn't have anything to do with our public affairs in Washington? Do you really mean that our public offices should be turned over to men who have never made a success of their own careers?

Do you Mr. Holleman?

That is what you were saying in your attack on Senator Blakley. You were saying that it was perfectly all right for union leaders in Washington, New York, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other big cities to pour money into Texas to elect a man of their choosing. You were saying that the workingman is against success.

We can't believe you know the workingman, sir. We don't believe you know Texans either, Mr. Holleman.

All of us are young Texans. We have just graduated from our Texas colleges. Our parents are workmen and women. We know they want us to be successful—and we want to live up to their expectations and justify their many sacrifices to help us attain college educations.

Nobody else but you ever told us success was wrong, Mr. Holleman. Men like Bill Blakley built Texas and built America. Along with many, many others, he has helped keep Texas growing and prospering. You and many of your fellow union leaders might not even be here in Texas if it had not been for business leaders like Bill Blakley.

While Mr. Blakley has been building, what has your candidate been doing, Mr. Holleman?

Since most of us were only a year old he has been running for office and he hasn't yet received a majority of the votes. On his fifth attempt—in a special election where there was no run-off—two out of every three Texans voted for his opponents.

Mr. Holleman, your candidate has a record of failures unequalled in Texas.

If you expect young people to follow your leadership, Mr. Holleman, do you really mean to tell them that a long record of failure will win more for them than a record of outstanding success?

Mr. Holleman, your organization is quick to criticize Mr. Blakley for being a success in business. What about the AFL-CIO's own record in business?

Would the hundred thousand members of the unions who lost their life's savings because they took the word of AFL-CIO leaders on ICF stock agree with you that business success is bad?

Mr. Blakley has been successful in business, Mr. Holleman, while your organization has been a party to the biggest failure in Texas history.

You attack success, Mr. Holleman, from a record of failure. Which leadership do you think Texans, young and old, want to follow? Your kind or the kind offered by Bill Blakley?

The kind of Texas we want is the kind of Texas our parents helped to give us. We want to keep it that way for ourselves and our children. We don't want the conditions which the political labor bosses have created in other states, Mr. Holleman. We like what we have here—a chance to make good—just as Bill Blakley has done—and we believe he is the man who can help us do just that.

That is why we are supporting him and will continue to do so. For he is the dream-come-true which we and every other Texas boy and girl have had since we were a year old—when your candidate began running for office.

We believe that Bill Blakley will be the kind of Senator who will make every Texan, including you, Mr. Holleman, be proud to say "I am a Texan."

We are proud to be Texans and we're going to be even prouder when Mr. Blakley goes back to Washington. And you can be sure he's going, Mr. Holleman, because you just can't fool enough Texans enough of the time.

Sincerely yours,

When and Where to Buy" Used Demonstration Topic for Women

When and Where to Buy" was the topic of the demonstration conducted by Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent, family economics leaders on Friday afternoon in the agent's home. The leaders, in turn, will take this program back to their clubs.

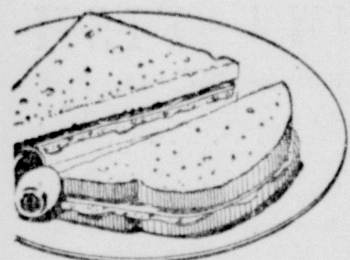

Discussed were the seven steps in management in buying in order that the consumer might improve his technique of buying.

How to buy, when to buy and where to buy were all discussed.

Tasty Fudge Sauce Can Be Made Easily

For luscious hot fudge sauce, beat five tablespoons of water and four tablespoons of butter in the top of a double boiler until the butter melts. Add one package of fudge and frosting mix and cook over boiling water for five minutes.

Stir in one cup of miniature marshmallows and one-half cup of chopped nuts. Serve over vanilla ice cream. The recipe makes about one and one-half cups of sauce.

Handy, thrifty... and oh, so good!

Miracle
Sandwich Spread

Attention was called to rules that should be observed for shopping for self, home, for the household, leisure and car.

Alertness and planning are essential for good shopping, the agent told the leaders. "It is on small day-to-day purchases that you spend much of your income and have the most frequent opportunities to make your money do more for you, it was pointed out. By shopping and planning wisely you not only receive better value for your money, but can actually save a substantial amount of cash over a period of time. The best buy is a product which, though not necessarily the best, satisfies the needs or cluster of needs of the individual consumer at a cost, not less than the money allotted through the budget to meet the need or cluster of needs.

Winnie Belle Grubbs Weds Stamford Man

Winnie Belle Grubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Grubbs of Hamlin, became the bride of Henry Dancer of Stamford last Wednesday at Anson. The ceremony was performed in the office of Joe Mathis, justice of the peace. The young couple will make their home at Stamford.

Sure-footed Man Serves Texas

The colorful language of the ranch and trail seems to fit Bill Blakley, who made his start in life as a working cowboy. He still rides and ropes with the hands on his ranch at roundup time. Speaking of Blakley's service as U. S. Senator in 1937, the Dallas News said: "... If he was as unassuming as an old boot, it was nevertheless a well polished boot that never wobbled or wandered from its purposeful path. For this man Blakley is a sure-footed man who knows exactly where he stands and what he believes."

Texas will vote to return William A. Blakley to the Senate on July 26 because he truly represents the spirit, traditions and views of all Texas.

New Medications for Skin Help Clear Up Blemishes of Face

Teens bothered with skin problems dread the arrival of summertime when sun-back dresses, halter tops and bathing suits all expose possible trouble areas.

Many girls know that if they have a tendency to break out with humps and bumps on their faces, they are apt to develop a few elsewhere—on the chest, the nape of the neck and even across the shoulders.

The good news about this annual summer problem is that now there is a preparation which does a fast job in helping to clear up pimples and blackheads on any part of the body.

The medication goes after the pesky spots in three ways—it soothes, it helps to heal, and, thanks to its fresh color, it hides. Just a touch of this soothing preparation provides a flattering film so inconspicuous that it can be worn both day and night.

Since it is greaseless and stainless, the medication is safe to apply on the body without fear of staining pretty clothes.

The preparation combines the special ingredients prescribed by leading dermatologists for the treatment of pimples and acne in an oil-absorbing base. The combined action of these ingredients softens and dissolves the affected skin tissues and penetrates deep into the pores to help along the healing process.

It also loosens blackheads from underneath so that they actually seem to float out with a regular soap-and-water washing. And as a safeguard against further trouble, the medication is an antiseptic that halts the spread of surface bacteria.

Make Child's Gifts Lifetime Investment

A planned program of gift giving can represent an investment in the future for your child.

For instance, give a baby girl a piece of sterling silverware from her first birthday anniversary on and by the time she is 18 she will have a solid silver flatware service.

Not only is this a good investment for a child but it helps her to appreciate and become aware of beauty and its partnership with utility and every-day living.

New Equipment and Time Savers Help Mothers Travel with Baby in Luxury

Young travelers should hit the road in comfort this season, if mom is on her toes. And what mom would ignore all the new equipment and time savers that will make her daily outing or vacation an adventure, not a chore?

Take the matter of baby's bath, for instance: Why not pack one of the small portable, plastic pools, ideal for bathing baby in a motel or hotel? Such a pool is handy, too, on a warm day to cool baby off at a resort or picnic.

Other handy items found in stores these days include a plastic toilet for the older child and plastic tongs for rinsing out diapers in strange places. Just clamp the tongs on the diaper, turn the tongs and squeeze the diaper dry.

Baby will be at his happy best with a simple type of home routine—meals, naps and play at regular hours. He'd like his bath session unhurried, even if mom is anxious to get it finished. After the bath, rub creamy white baby lotion over your little traveler to keep his skin from drying and chafing.

A baby kit is handy in the car, in addition to the items you have packed for evening use. The kit that contains lotion, powder, oil, cleansing tissues, cotton buds and a hair brush is ideal for freshening baby as you travel.

If baby is going to the beach, you'll need a few extras for his protection from the sun. A head covering with a brim will protect small heads and keep direct sunlight from young beach baskers' eyes. Mother should be equipped with an alarm clock for timing sun sessions, too.

County 4-H Club Dress Revue Slated at Anson Church July 23

Annual dress revue of Jones County 4-H Club girls will be held Wednesday, July 23, at 2:30 p. m. at the fellowship hall of the Anson First Baptist Church. The revue is being sponsored by the Anson Chamber of Commerce, according to Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent. Donald Page, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will present the awards.

Clothing workshops have been conducted. Adults assisting the 4-H Club girls were Mrs. R. C. Huber, Mrs. Howard Roberts, Mrs. Woodrow Bagley and Mrs. Bernice Bradshaw of Anson; Mrs. Eben Shuquist, Mrs. O. L. Putman, Mrs. M. R. Huffaker, Mrs. Cliff Garrett and Mrs. Frank Agee of Anson; and Mrs. Ab Hunter Jr. of Noodle.

Dresses, blouses and skirts will be modeled in a nine, 10 and 11-year-old group; 12 and 13-year-olds; and 14 years and older. Alice Kemp, Fisher County home demonstration agent, and Barbara McAnnelly, home demonstration agent of Haskell County, will judge the garments.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. E. Bailey returned first of the week from California, where she had been visiting with relatives. She visited the A. C. Porterfields at San Bernardino and the Joe Kochs at Riverside.

Ruth Sunday School Class Meets Tuesday In Sid Clay Home

Members of the Ruth Sunday School Class of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Clay Tuesday evening in a monthly business and social session.

Mrs. L. H. Clark, vice president, had charge of the business session. Mrs. A. G. Anderson brought the devotional from the fourth chapter of Ephesians, reading the entire chapter. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. V. Madden.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to five members and the hostess, Mrs. Sid Clay, and four visitors.

Next meeting of the class will be at 2:00 p. m. August 14, in the home of Mrs. L. H. Clark, it was announced.

Sheer Fabrics Need Special Care While Sewing, Says Expert

Net, tulle, lace, chiffon and other sheer fabrics need careful handling when sewing.

Pin these materials to tissue paper before you pin them on the pattern or cut. This prevents them from slipping and sliding under your shears. Then leave the pattern pieces in place when you baste and sew.

This means you stitch through the two layers of tissue with the fabric sandwiched in between. You sacrifice the seam allowances on your pattern by doing this, but your seams will not pucker.

VISIT RELATIVES.

TELEPHONE TALK

New Wire Chief at Hamlin

Edward G. Holzmann has been named wire chief in Hamlin for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. He replaces E. W. (Andy) Anderson, who has been promoted to the position of installation foreman in Abilene.

In his new position Holzmann will have charge of all the telephone plant operations in Hamlin and in other towns served by the Hamlin exchange headquarters.

This includes installation and repair of telephones in several exchanges and the maintenance of the many miles of outside wire and telephone cable.

Hamlin's new wire chief began his telephone career in 1946 as a lineman. One year later he was advanced to the position of construction foreman. In 1957 he became a facilities engineer in Midland, a position he held until his appointment here.

Outside of the telephone business, Holzmann's principal interests are hunting, fishing and playing softball.

He is married, has two children and is a member of the Church of Christ.

Tin for Businessmen

Ever try answering your out-of-town mail with long distance calls instead of letters?

Nothing can beat long distance when it comes to getting things done.

Just the other day, for example, I had three or four letters on my desk, all waiting to be answered. I just couldn't seem to get to them. Finally, I picked up the telephone and called the people. In 20 minutes I was through. I must have saved myself at least an hour's work.

Try doing it that way yourself. When you do, I think you'll like the quick action you get—as well as the small amount it costs.

Dress Up Your Kitchen

A lot of people who have remodeled their kitchens add a finishing touch by ordering a wall telephone in color to blend with the new color scheme.

You don't have to remodel, of course... a wall telephone in color will brighten your present kitchen—let you reach for the telephone and bake a cake at the same time.

There are seven attractive colors... light gray, cherry red, white, moss green, ivory, pastel yellow, and light beige. Table model telephones are available in all these colors, too, plus aqua blue and rose pink. Call the telephone company today to get more color in your kitchen—or any other room in your home.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Austin.—In 1876 a wagon with a team of oxen was good transportation in Texas. But on today's city streets and super highways the ox wagon would be just a traffic bottleneck.

Some Texans now are saying Texas' 82-year-old ox wagon constitution is a bottleneck on the road to development of dynamic twentieth century government.

Constitutional revision is not one of the currently sizzling campaign issues. But, quietly and patiently, numerous people in government, in the bar, in professional and civic groups, the press and in private and public educational institutions are plugging away in a make-haste-slowly campaign. Principal objective now is to get Texans thinking about what they want and need in a state constitution today.

Their campaign gained official blessing last year when the Legislature passed a resolution instructing the legislative council to do research on the subject and report back in 1959. An 18-member citizens advisory committee was appointed to counsel with the legislative study group. Dean Robert G. Storey of the Southern Methodist University law school is chairman; C. Y. Mills of Mission and Mrs. Horton Wayne Smith of Austin, vice chairmen; and Dan Moody Jr. of Austin, secretary.

Next meeting of the advisory group is to be held in September. Right now, one member admits that progress toward revision is itself moving at an ox wagon pace. Reason is that those concerned feel strongly that any action should be preceded by an exhaustive, professional research job. This takes money.

Legislative Council, with a staff of seven, and 11 studies under way, cannot go all out on this one thing, but is doing some fact gathering during the summer. Both council and committee hope to get money for the work, perhaps by next year, from the Legislature or some private foundation.

Advocates of constitutional revision advance these points, among others, as reasons for concern:

1. It's a staggering document, 47,000 words long, patched up with
2. Like Topsy, Texas' huge conglomeration of agencies, departments, commissions and divisions "just grew." It is all so loosely put together, say critics, that folks do not know who to blame when things do not suit them. Same indictment is applied to the fiscal set-up. It's a billion-dollar-a-year business, but control is mince-meated among many. State has more than 100 special funds, representing about 85 per cent of state revenue. These cannot be touched by the Legislature, even if they are not needed for the purpose for which they are earmarked and are desperately needed elsewhere.

3. Another argument made is that increasing concentration of government in Washington can be halted only if state governments are sufficiently vigorous and adaptable to meet people's changing and growing needs. Some suggest that Texas' present constitution may be a "strait jacket" on state government.

High Cost of Driving.—Texas drivers will have to "pay the piper" next year in higher auto insurance.

State Insurance Board has announced that, effective August 1, auto insurance rates will be substantially higher in most parts of Texas. Average hike will be 32 per cent on comprehensive coverage, 19 per cent on liability and 17 per cent on collision. In Dallas County, for example, a policy that now costs $108 will jump to $142.

Premiums paid on the old rate schedule have not nearly met accident claims, said Penn Jackson, chairman of the insurance board. He attributed the insurance companies' "tremendous losses" to four factors:

1. An increasing number of collisions.
2. Higher cost of repairing today's swanky cars.
3. Higher cost of hospital and medical care.
4. Generosity of juries in awarding damages to claimants.

Auto owners, said Jackson, must realize they set their own insurance rates by the way they drive.

Water Future.—Hope for an

Blakley Story Is Typically Texan

The typical American story is of the poor boy who made good through his own efforts. This is the story of Bill Blakley, born in a covered wagon while his parents were on their way to homestead in Oklahoma territory. He has come a long way in 59 years. Said the Austin American-Statesman, when William A. Blakley announced for the Senate:

"... He was a top-hand cowboy; he was a crackerjack bank clerk; he was an exceptionally good accountant and lawyer. We have an idea that he is going to be a refreshing, able political candidate. He would make a great United States Senator."

Vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 — an able man whose only ambition is to serve all of Texas.

KERRY DRAKE

ever more prosperous Texas is found in the recently completed state and federal survey of Texas' water resources and needs.

Contents of the study were made public by U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson who requested the survey a year ago. Texas Board of Water Engineers and three federal agencies collaborated in compiling data.

Each major river basin was studied and the possibility of switching flood waters from one basin to another discussed at length.

"The scope of the economic impact of large scale water exchange in Texas is impressive," said the report. "If exploited to its logical conclusion, there is solid evidence to indicate that the increase in Texas income would be of great magnitude."

On Fishing for Industry.—A how-to-do-it booklet for communities wanting to attract new industry is now in circulation.

It was published by the new Texas Industrial Commission with private donations. In 66 pages, the book tells how a community should analyze itself, correct any inadequacies and bring all good points to the fore in a promotion effort.

Commission members expressed hope that passage next November of a constitutional amendment to permit use of state funds for advertising would make continuation of their efforts possible.

Han 1 Off.—State Board of Education has gone on record as officially—and positively—opposing any plan to tamper with the permanent school fund.

Last Legislature voted to make one per cent of the permanent fund available annually for current expenses. State Auditor

C. H. Cavness has proposed making part of future income from school lands available for pressing present needs and putting only part into the multi-million-dollar school trust fund. But the school board declared the fund should be "inviolate."

At the same meeting the board learned the school fund had run

Hamlin Barbers Go to Convention at Dallas

Jimmy Wright and Bonnie Bingham of the Ideal and Hub Hopper of the Imperial Barber Shop attended the State Barbers Association convention at Dallas July 14 at the Adolphus Hotel.

The new association, recently chartered, tabulated 600 members and other guests. Outstanding speakers highlighted the program. Next year's convention will be at the Hilton Hotel in San Antonio on July 19 and 20, it was decided at the Dallas meeting.

Freight Carloadings For Santa Fe Climb

Freight carloadings for the Santa Fe Railway System for the week ending July 5, 1958, were 33,202 compared with 21,653 for the same week a year ago, reflecting the biggest gain in many months. Cars received from connections totaled 11,010 compared with 11,273 for the same week in 1957.

Total cars moved were 44,212 compared with 32,926 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 39,562 cars in the preceding week this year.

Jackie Drummond of Hamlin Among Texas Tech ROTC Group in Desert

Jackie W. Drummond, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drummond of Hamlin and student at Texas Technological College at Lubbock, is among Tech students doing special training this summer at Williams Air Force Base in Arizona.

Learning to exist in 112-degree desert heat and flying in jets on gunnery missions are a part of the routine for 14 Texas Tech Air Force ROTC cadets at the base.

They are nearing the end of four weeks of summer training with approximately 200 other AF ROTC cadets from 41 other colleges and universities.

Commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Edwin L. Heller, veteran World War II and Korean conflict ace, the cadets have also experienced ejection seat rides and altitude chamber "flights" in addition to the usual classroom work and rigid inspections at Williams.

Lieutenant Colonel Newton B. Wilkerson, commander of the AF ROTC at Texas Tech, is training officers for the summer camp.

During their summer tour, the cadets are familiarized with all facets of military life and AF training they will receive after they are commissioned.

Those who have signed up for flying training received a preview of their future military life with jet indoctrination rides and gunnery mission flights with Williams AFB pilots.

Survival training—in both water and desert—is part of a jet pilot's schooling and the cadets experienced a brief taste of both.

After a march into the furnace like Arizona desert, they learned to get water by squeezing the juices from cactus as part of their 24-hour trek.

Meals featuring snake, lizard, road runner and rabbit as the main course were the rule while they rested under lean-tos made from the stem core of Saguaro cacti draped with parachute canopies.

During the trek cadets were "bombed" with flour bags and "strafed" by Lieutenant Colonel Heller flying an F-86 low over their camp site.

Water survival techniques were practiced in the cadet swimming pool.

A fire power demonstration at Gila Bend gunnery range featured the F-101 Voodoo in action and a display of combat performance techniques of F-100, F-86 and F-84 jet aircraft to give the cadets an idea of what they may fly in the future.

Their final days of training will be highlighted by a tour of the North American aircraft plant in Los Angeles California, this week.

After completing the senior year of academic and AF ROTC work at Tech next spring, the cadets will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the U. S. Air Force Reserve. They will serve three or five-year active duty tours, depending on the type of assignment they have requested.

SUBTLE APPROACH.

"I've decided on a name for the baby," said the expectant mother. "I shall call her Minerva."

The young husband didn't care very much for her selection but, being a tactful fellow, was far too wise to object verbally.

"Fine," he agreed. "That's a fine name." The first girl I ever loved was called Minerva, and the name revives happy memories."

There was a brief pause, then: "We'll call her Lucy Jane; I think I like that better," said the young wife.

MISS ROSEBUD—This is Jill Jordan, 19-year-old Victoria College student, who will be "Miss Rosebud" in the Miss Texas Pageant at Amarillo in August.

Royal Ambassador Camps for Baptist Youth Start Soon

Royal Ambassador camps for boys are coming up next on the schedule for the Lueders Baptist Encampment youth camps of District 17, and numbers of Hamlin area youngsters will participate.

The Intermediate RA camp is slated for July 21-24, and the Junior RA camp July 28-31.

Rev. Grady Allison, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Monday, will be director for both camps. Ages of the intermediates are 13 through 16 years of age; of juniors, nine through 12 years of age.

For the intermediate camp Rev. DeWitt Chandler of Clyde will be camp pastor, and Rev. J. Ulman Moss of Venezuela missionary.

Sports director will be Vonzie Walters of Cross Plains; music director, Bill Keck of Haskell; and pianist, Edwin Peoples of Abilene.

The mission book teachers will be Milton Thompson of Hawley, B. F. Risinger of Munday, Edwin Peoples of Abilene and Bill Beatty of Anson. Ranking class instructors will be Claude Slater of Rule, Billy Burke of Girard, L. D. Regeon of Haskell and Avery Sullivan of Sweetwater.

The day's program will include swimming in the new swimming pool, camp fire services by the river, baseball, track and crafts during the recreation periods.

A recognition service will be held on Wednesday evening at 8:30 p. m. 100 slides and missionary films will be a part of the evening programs. The camp pastor will preach at 11:00 a. m. Mission study and ranking classes will be held each morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Willis and son, Keith, of Orange are vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Cooper, and other relatives in the Hamlin community.

Floyd E. Gauntt Go To Europe for Two-Month Planned Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Gauntt of Hamlin, formerly of Rule, were scheduled to leave Wednesday of this week from New York City for a two-month European vacation.

The couple will be accompanied by Mrs. Indie Branton of Rochester, Gauntt's sister, and Mrs. Guy Speck of Carlsbad, New Mexico, sister of Mrs. Gauntt.

Their two-month tour, planned by Gay Travel Service, will include visits to 12 countries.

Before boarding the S.S. Atlantic, the Gauntts visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Parks, and eight-month-old granddaughter, Susan Janet. Mr. and Mrs. Parks moved to New York City recently from Snyder, where he was counselor at Snyder High School. Parks is now studying for his doctorate at Columbia University.

The couple formerly resided at Rule, where Gauntt owned a furniture store and funeral home for 30 years.

Edward G. Holzmann Named Wire Chief of Hamlin Phone Plant

Edward G. Holzmann last week was named wire chief of Southwest Bell Telephone Company for Hamlin and neighboring territory. He has been promoted to the position of wire chief at Hamlin, where he had been at Hamlin for one and one-half years.

Holzmann will have charge of the telephone plant operations in Hamlin and in other towns served by the Hamlin exchange headquarters. This includes installation and repair of telephones in several exchanges and maintenance of the many miles of outside wire and telephone cable.

The new wire chief began his telephone career in 1946 as a line man. One year later he was advanced to the position of construction foreman. In 1957 he became a facilities engineer at Midland, a position he held until his appointment here.

Holzmann and his wife have two daughters, Janis, age four, and Nancy, age eight.

New Senate Hand Aided Democrats

When William A. Blakley was appointed to the U. S. Senate in 1957, he was a political unknown in Texas. But Washington awaited his arrival with great interest. So close was the party balance in the Senate that Blakley's vote was the difference between Democratic and Republican control.

True to his Democratic tradition, Bill Blakley voted with his fellow Democrats. They have been in control ever since.

Now Bill Blakley seeks his first elective term in the U. S. Senate. A vote for Blakley is a vote for sound, Democratic government.

John Richey Tells Lions Club About Trip to Boys' State

One of the most thrilling and educational times of his life was spent recently by John Richey, Hamlin High School junior, at the annual Boys' State demonstration at Austin, when he spoke Tuesday at noon at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Young Richey, son of Mrs. Jack Richey, was sponsored by Hamlin Rotary Club under auspices of the Sylvester American Legion past.

With 521 boys from all portions of Texas attending the practical demonstration of governmental operations during a week of elections and office functionings, the young men received first hand information of how state, district, county and city governments are operated, Richey said. He was elected sheriff of a mythical Dunning County during the spirited election campaigns.

Outstanding governmental men of Texas spoke at sessions of the Boys' State, which kept attendees going from 6:30 in the morning till 9:30 at night, the Hamlin junior asserted.

A Lions Club picnic for members and their families was tentatively set for August 26, according to Stan Sheppard, president.

Besides Richey, and Georganna Fitzgerald, who played the piano in the absence of Mrs. Joe McCrary, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included Truett May of California, and Edward G. Holzmann, new wire chief of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hamlin.

YEW FOR STEW MAY MEAN PROFIT—J. W. Owen of Dallas admires a pearl he found when he opened a can of oyster stew. A nocturnal yearning for a bowl of his favorite stew sent Owen to the store where he purchased the can for 36 cents. Opening the can he discovered the pearl, which he first thought was a stone. A jewelry official said he would send the pearl to an appraising firm in New York to determine its worth. Owen hopes to parlay the 36 cents into a neat profit.

Nearly 100 County Farmers Attend Rat Control Clinic

Ninety-two Jones County farmers attended the rat control demonstration held in the county last week by County Agent Kirby Clayton and Sid Knight of the Rodent Control Service in Fort Worth, and Harris Wright, manager of the county Farm Bureau.

Over 1,000 pounds of fumigant rat bait were distributed to farmers over the county at the demonstration sites.

Knight explained to the group of Jones County farmers that rats are becoming more of a problem over the state due to the large grain crops and the bountiful supply of moisture during the past year. He urged farmers to join in the rat control campaign to help eradicate the pest from this county. Knight explained that the control campaign could not be too effective unless it was county-wide and the majority of farmers join in to help eradicate them.

A grown rat will eat, destroy or otherwise damage $9 worth of feed or property a year, and at the rate they are multiplying, they will destroy a large portion of the county's grain crop unless a strict control program is followed.

For those who missed the demonstration but would like to have help, they are urged to contact the county agent's office.

No other rat control demonstrations are planned in Jones County for the immediate future, Clayton asserts.

Not every man who studied Latin knows much about it.

Newberry Twins Tighten Their Hold On Little League Batting Leadership

The Newberry twins—Dan and Van, sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Newberry—tightened their hold on top positions in the batting averages of the Little League baseball race as the final week of play was reeled off last week.

Van had a season average of .556 to top the ranks, and Dan had a .537 percentage. Both are on the Braves team. Other high averages for the season are: George Smith, also of the Braves, with .455; David Drummond with .348; Gary Ted Jay with .350 and Kenneth Scott with .386 for the Giants; Jimmy Inzer with .423 and Mark Smith with .348 for the Cardinals.

VISIT KIN AT POST.
Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young spent Friday and Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Burton Hill and children, Jess and Tonja, at Post.

Packers and Feeder Buyers Maintain Good Demand for Cattle at Fair Prices

Cattle and calves opened about steady at Fort Worth Monday but weakness developed on cows shortly after the opening and sales were around 50 cents lower by the time a clearance was completed, according to the weekly market summary of Ted Goulby, special market reporter for The Herald. His release continues: Liberal water fills offset some of the apparently lower offers in most cases. Fed steers and yearlings sold on a steady to weaker basis, spots 25 cents or more lower. Most of the fed cattle were of the short and or warmed-up grasser variety and attracted about equal bids in many cases from packers and feeder buyers.

Slaughter calves were steady to weaker, compared with the high close of last week, as national packers exerted pressure from the start on that class. Stocker and feeder cattle and calves were firm throughout. Bulls were steady to stronger, some topy bulls up to $22.50 or 50 cents above most recent sales.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cleared at $17 to $24. Fat cows cashed at $17.50 to $20.50, and canners and cutters drew $11 to $17.50. Bulls earned $18 to $22.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $24 to $28, and common and medium sorts brought $17 to $24. Culls sold at $14 to $17. Medium to good stocker steer calves cleared at $25 to $32, a few to $33. Heifer calves ranged from $29 downward. Stocker steer yearlings of medium to good grades sold from $22 to $27, with some choice lighter weights to $27.50 and $28. Stocker heifers sold around $24 to $25 and downward.

Slaughter lambs were weak to 50 cents or more lower, and the top was $1 under the highest price last week. Strictly choice lambs were very scarce. Yearling wethers were weak to 50 cents lower. Older sheep and goats were steady.

Good and choice slaughter lambs, cashed at $20 to $22, and cull to medium lambs sold from $12 to $19. Stocker and feeder lambs ranged from $17 to $20, and short feeders sold from $18 down.

Good to choice yearlings ranged from $17 to $18, some 118-pound yearlings at $17. Cull to medium yearlings sold from $12 to $15. Slaughter ewes cashed at $7 to $7.50. Slaughter goats sold around $7. Two-year-old wethers ranged from $14 downward. Old bucks brought $5 to $6. Broken mouthed ewes sold at $11, and fairly low mouthed eyes sold at $14. Young ewes were scarce.

Hogs sold 50 cents lower as choice hogs cashed at $23.25 to $23.75, and medium to good butchers cashed at $21 to $23. Pigs drew $20 to $22. Sows sold from $18 to $21, a few choice light-weights to $21.50.

People who sit up late at night rarely ever get up early in the mornings.

Hitchcock Film to Play This Week at Hamlin Theaters

With the masterfully conceived spine tinger, "Vertigo," Alfred Hitchcock once again affirms his standing as movieland's king of the suspense drama, and with the potent marquee combination of Kim Novak and James Stewart, the film should be one of the year's top draws at the box office. It plays Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Ferguson and Wednesday and Thursday at the Drive-In Theater.

Photographed in San Francisco in exquisite color, the authentic backgrounds, including the famed Ernie's restaurant, Mission Dolores, and Nob Hill, lend added impact to the tautly drawn screen play by Alec Coppel and Samuel Taylor which manages to tell three distinct types of story in this one picture without a moment of audience confusion.

Through it all runs Hitchcock's superb directorial hand, gleaming from a meticulously chosen cast top performances. Stewart gives his finest screen portrayal to date in an exacting role that keeps him on camera almost continuously, with Miss Novak providing a solid bit of thespian art that should establish her as something more than one of filmland's glamor girls. Barbara Bel Geddes handles her rather limited role as Stewart's practical minded girl.

TED RUSSELL, whose wisecracks are known almost as well as the fact that he is vice president of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, broke out last Wednesday noon at the Rotary Club officer installation in spite of the fact that he was an invited guest from the Lions Club.

As Gene Prewitt, retiring president, was recounting the accomplishments of the Rotary Club during the past fiscal year ended June 30, Ted evidently thought Gene was going a bit too far in claiming credit for several community projects.

"Why don't you boys also take credit for the good rains of the winter and spring and the record wheat crop which we have just harvested?" the amiable banker quipped.

REX FELKER, native of Haskell and now manager of the Quanah Chamber of Commerce, was the principal speaker last Wednesday noon at the special officer installation meeting of Hamlin Rotary Club.

During his earlier days, he was a featured performer with the famous Cowboy Band of Hardin-Simmons University. He performed as a trick roper with the musical group on many of its tours.

"Back when I was roping with the Cowboy Band," Felker related, "I was supposed to rope a galloping horse, snaring all four legs in the loop. Once in the act I roped my horse, but he flipped me and I landed on my head—and I've been in Chamber of Commerce work since."

Felker also quipped that he heard of a young friend who was resourceful as well as inquisitive. The friend was loitering around an old blacksmith shop, and the smithy took a hot horse-shoe from his furnace and dropped it to the ground. The youngster reached to pick it up, but immediately he dropped the hot article. "Did it burn you?" inquired the smithy.

"Naw," said the kid. "It just didn't take me long to look at a horse-shoe."

MRS. ED BAILEY and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Carlton will tell you that the reports about cool California are a lot of propaganda.

Mrs. Bailey, who visited with the families of two daughters at San Bernadino and Riverside, declared she endured 117-degree weather out there. "I had to come back home to cool off," she declared with a swipe of her brow that felt only about a 100 degrees on the mercury rod at Hamlin.

The Carltons said the idea of going to California to cool off was a mistake—so they came home to do that very thing.

THE STORY IS TOLD that Winton Churchill hailed a cab in the West End and told the cabbie to drive him to BBC, where he was scheduled to make a speech to the world.

"Sorry, sir," said the driver. "You'll have to get yourself another cab. I can't go that far."

Mr. Churchill was somewhat surprised, and asked the cabbie why his field of operations was so limited.

"It ain't ordinarily, sir," apologized the driver, "but ye see, sir, Mr. Churchill is broadcasting in an hour, and I want to get 'ome to 'ear 'im."

Churchill was so well pleased that he pulled out a pound note and handed it to the driver, who took one quick look at it and said: "Hop in, sir. To the devil with Mr. Churchill."

SOME MORE daffy definitions that probably will never be included in Webster's dictionary—but you'll have to admit, they are just about right . . .

Adding machine: The thing in life that counts most.

Ambition: Working yourself to death in order to live better.

Bath: Where a person who can't carry a tune tries to carry it too far.

Bicycle: A tired vehicle that can't stand up by itself.

Cold: About the only thing that can stay in some people's heads or more than one day.

Controversy: The result of the collision of two trains of thought.

Durable Goods: Those that last longer than the time payments on them.

Economy: Denying ourselves a necessity today in order to have a luxury tomorrow.

Insect Infestation Is Lowest in Years

The cotton insect infestation count in Jones County is probably the lowest for this time of year in many years, according to Kirby Clayton, county agent.

Compiled reports from Clayton and Bill Moore, veterans' vocational instructor, reveal that flea-hopper infestation count ranged from five to 10 per cent in most fields; thrips infestations run from 50 to 60 per cent; bollworms range from four to five per cent in fields of older cotton to zero in younger cotton. Grasshoppers are doing damage to fields of young cotton adjoining fence rows and pasture land. Rabbits continue to damage stands of both old and young cotton over the area.

County Agent Clayton recommends that farmers keep check on their cotton during the next two weeks, since this time is ideal for a heavy build-up of fleahoppers and bollworms. The recent rains and wind seem to have destroyed the old crop of fleahoppers in the fields, but the chances are that another crop will be present in the next two to three weeks, Clayton declares.

Late report from Fort Worth Wednesday morning at press time for The Herald indicated that Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Morton, who were seriously injured in a car wreck Sunday week, was some improved.

Mrs. Morton, more seriously injured of the two, underwent surgery on the brain Tuesday. The operation revealed bruised tissues but no suspected blood clot. She remained unconscious, but doctors expressed hope she would recover.

Morton, who sustained a fractured jaw and crushed knee, is improved. The jaw has been wired together and splinted, and he must be fed through a straw for several weeks.

The Mortons, who formerly lived at Hamlin, were returning to their home at Fort Worth after attending a family reunion at Lueders. Their car crashed into a truck pulling another car about a mile from the site on the Stephens-Palo Pinto County line where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morton, were killed in 1953.

Several vacancies remain to be filled in the teaching staffs of Hamlin schools, it is reported this week by Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Mrs. Mae Hennington, second grade teacher, has retired and no replacement has been named. Mrs. Bobbie Moore, wife of the pastor of Faith Methodist Church has been named a teacher in the elementary school. Anne Harrell of Canyon has been named as a high school English teacher to succeed Mrs. A. A. Wade, who has resigned. Charles Wylly has resigned to take a place in the Walnut Springs school.

Mrs. Boyd sustained serious head and leg injuries, and has been in bed constantly since the accident. She still must remain in bed for several weeks. Mr. Boyd has been out of the hospital several weeks, but is hobbling on crutches.

Mrs. W. L. Boyd, injured with her husband in an automobile-truck collision near Haskell on April 27, was moved to the family residence on Southwest Avenue A Saturday from the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Plans are taking shape for the annual Fisher County Fair and Rodeo, scheduled at Roby on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28, 29 and 30, according to officials of the show.

Leaders for the fair, who were in Hamlin Monday, said full three days of exhibits of livestock, farm products, needlecraft and culinary products are scheduled this year. Heretofore only one day of these exhibits have been staged.

Three night performances have been scheduled for the rodeo, which has come to be recognized as one of the best in West Texas. A complete fair catalog and rodeo handbook, which will be printed by The Herald plant, will be out in a few days. Ads in the catalog were being sold by committees first of the week.

NEW WIRE CHIEF for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hamlin at Elvard G. Holzmann (above). He replaces E. W. (Andy) Anderson, who recently was made installation foreman at Abilene. Holzmann comes from Midland. He has been with the phone concern for nine years.

Managers of the league leading Braves of the Hamlin loop plus Mac Fullerton will manage the Hamlin all-star team in tournament play.

Members of the all-star entry were selected from the four teams that completed their schedule last week. They are:

From the Braves — Spec Cox, Dan Newberry, Van Newberry and George Smith; from the Cardinals — Jaylon Fincannon, Jimmy Inzer and Mark Smith; from the Giants — Gary Ted Jay, Kenneth Scott and Ronnie Sipe; from the Yankees — DeWayne Bundas, Timmy Ingram, Butch Holland and Cleon Warner.

John Richey, son of Mrs. Jack Richey, and a Hamlin High School junior, will be among area boys participating in a TV program on the Texas Boys' State over Station KREC-TV this (Thursday) evening at 9:45 o'clock, channel 9.

Young Richey recently attended Boys' State demonstration at the Texas capital city of Austin. He was sponsored by Hamlin Rotary Club under auspices of the Sylvester American Legion post.

Continued good interest was manifested by Hamlin area cotton farmers last Wednesday in the second in the series of short courses being conducted by the vocational agriculture department of Hamlin High School on identification and control of cotton insects.

T. C. Blankinship, VA instructor who arranged the short courses at Hamlin, said last week's session featured field trips to the Bill Matchett and Orville Buntin places north of town, where several types of harmful and beneficial insects were identified.

Assisting with the program are E. L. Tiner, coordinator from the agriculture education department of Texas A. & M.; and H. A. Turney, entomology specialist from A. & M.

Two more short course sessions will be conducted later this month, Blankinship announced. They are set for Monday, July 28 and Wednesday, July 30.

Naming of Queen and Candidate Speaking Set at FB Meeting

Election of a Jones County Farm Bureau Queen and a candidate speaking will feature the gathering Saturday evening of Farm Bureau members and visitors at Anson, it is announced by Charlie Gregory, president of the county unit.

The gathering will be at 7:30 o'clock in the Anson High School auditorium. The public is invited. Dub Dowling of an Abilene TV station will be master of ceremonies.

Candidates for the Queen must be the daughter of an FB member, between the ages of 16 and 22 years and unmarried. The girl named as county Queen will go to a district meeting in September, and district winner will go to the state Farm Bureau convention at Corpus Christi in November.

Mrs. W. L. Boyd Taken To Home in Hamlin

Mrs. W. L. Boyd, injured with her husband in an automobile-truck collision near Haskell on April 27, was moved to the family residence on Southwest Avenue A Saturday from the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Boyd sustained serious head and leg injuries, and has been in bed constantly since the accident. She still must remain in bed for several weeks. Mr. Boyd has been out of the hospital several weeks, but is hobbling on crutches.

Leaders for the fair, who were in Hamlin Monday, said full three days of exhibits of livestock, farm products, needlecraft and culinary products are scheduled this year. Heretofore only one day of these exhibits have been staged.

Three night performances have been scheduled for the rodeo, which has come to be recognized as one of the best in West Texas. A complete fair catalog and rodeo handbook, which will be printed by The Herald plant, will be out in a few days. Ads in the catalog were being sold by committees first of the week.

NEW WIRE CHIEF for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hamlin at Elvard G. Holzmann (above). He replaces E. W. (Andy) Anderson, who recently was made installation foreman at Abilene. Holzmann comes from Midland. He has been with the phone concern for nine years.

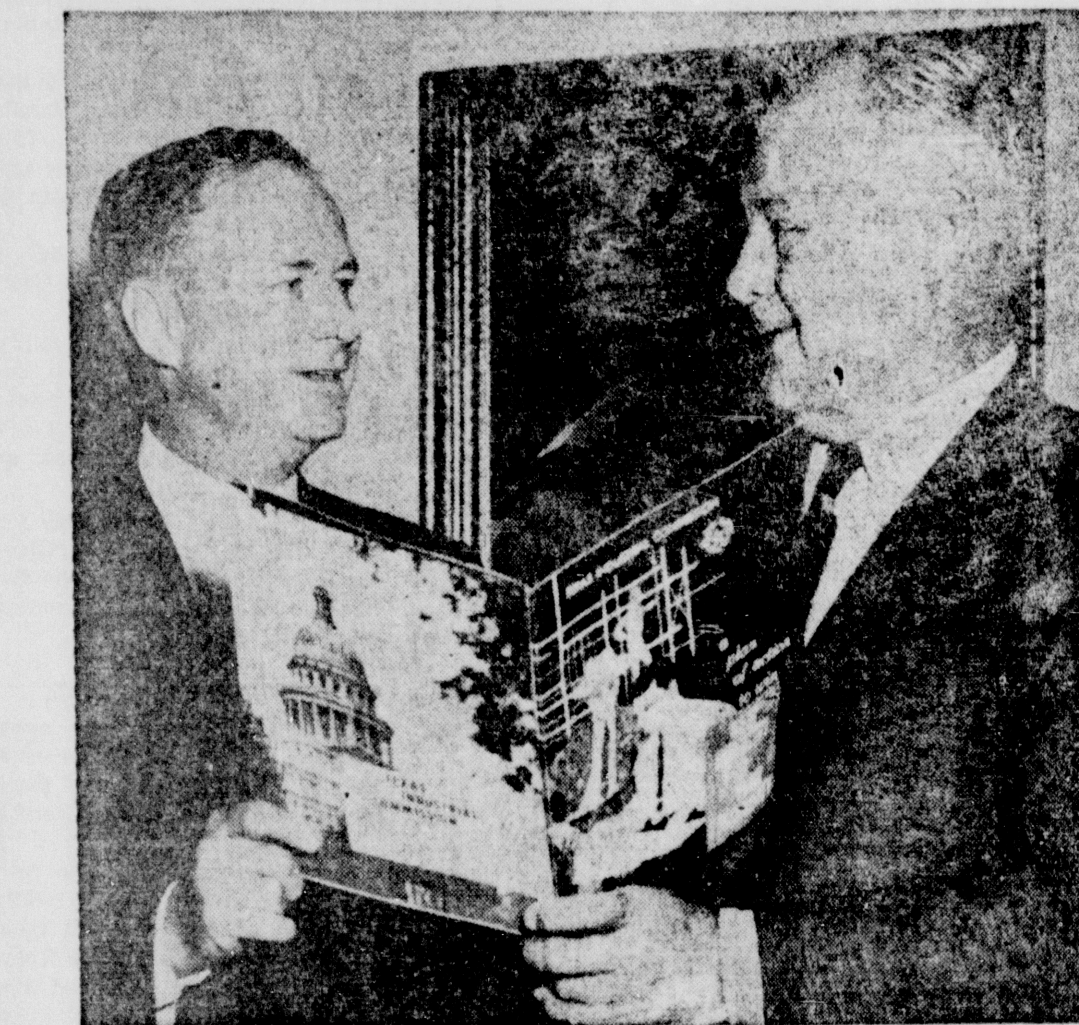

Managers of the league leading Braves of the Hamlin loop plus Mac Fullerton will manage the Hamlin all-star team in tournament play.

Members of the all-star entry were selected from the four teams that completed their schedule last week. They are:

From the Braves — Spec Cox, Dan Newberry, Van Newberry and George Smith; from the Cardinals — Jaylon Fincannon, Jimmy Inzer and Mark Smith; from the Giants — Gary Ted Jay, Kenneth Scott and Ronnie Sipe; from the Yankees — DeWayne Bundas, Timmy Ingram, Butch Holland and Cleon Warner.

John Richey, son of Mrs. Jack Richey, and a Hamlin High School junior, will be among area boys participating in a TV program on the Texas Boys' State over Station KREC-TV this (Thursday) evening at 9:45 o'clock, channel 9.

Young Richey recently attended Boys' State demonstration at the Texas capital city of Austin. He was sponsored by Hamlin Rotary Club under auspices of the Sylvester American Legion post.

Hamlin All-Stars To Meet Winner Of Merkel-Rotan

An all-star baseball team made up of members of the four Little League teams that completed the season's play last week in Hamlin, will play in District 5 championship competition next week, pointing toward the national competition, according to R. L. McClung, Little League president.

The Hamlin entry will play the winner of a Rotan-Merkel game, which is scheduled Monday night at Rotan. The tilt featuring the Hamlin boys will be played at the Hamlin Little League park Tuesday night beginning at 7:30 p. m. Winner of the Tuesday night game will play in Snyder for district honors next Thursday night.

Regional championship also will be determined at Snyder, where two teams from Abilene and from Snyder and Colorado City will play.

Valuations Fail to Reach Expected Level in District

Tax rate for Hamlin Independent School District will be the maximum $1.50 per $100 valuation, it was announced following the Monday night meeting of the board of trustees. The maximum was raised from $1.25 in an election on May 10. Previous rate was $1.25 per $100 valuation.

In announcing the tax rate at the maximum $1.50 the school board explained that property valuations had failed to reach the anticipated level in renditions recently compiled. Total renditions amounted to $16,200,000 for 1958. Oil property valuations in the district dropped more than $1,000,000 from last year, it is pointed out.

School costs have been mounting—along with other costs of all kinds—for several years, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, who said the school had operated at a deficit during the past two sessions.

Revenues likewise have been decreasing, principally due to slackening up of oil operations in the territory along with all other oil operations in the state.

Because of the favorable economic condition of the Hamlin region in the Hamlin section because of high industrial employment and other economic factors, the economic index set by the state Board of Education has cut state assistance to schools here. The district has lost thousands of dollars in aid in this category, Cook points out.

Another factor that caused the board to set the tax rate at the maximum was the need for higher bond sinking fund requirements scheduled in begin three years from now. The bond sinking fund will increase $8,000 per year in 1961.

Apportionment of revenues from the $1.50 rate were allotted by the board at $1.20 for maintenance and 30 cents for bonds. Last year's $1.25 revenue was allocated $1.05 for maintenance and 20 cents for bonds.

Abilene Evangelist To Fill Baptist Pulpit

Rev. Charlie Carter, evangelist of Abilene, will preach at both morning and evening worship services at the First Baptist Church Sunday, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. Calvin Bailey. Rev. Carter is well known over the state as an outstanding evangelist.

Pastor Bailey and his family are on vacation. They are visiting with relatives in Virginia and other Eastern states. Bailey is a native of Virginia.

Three new citizens have been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and two girls, they are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rangel arrived July 8. After having his weight checked at seven pounds eight ounces, he was given the label Jack Lee.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Williamson of Roby arrived July 9. Linda Gayle balanced the scales at five pounds 11 ounces.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Davis was born July 10. She weighed seven pounds six ounces and has accepted the name Judy Lynn.

Hardin-Simmons Exes and Friends Told About Huge Plans for Expansion

Greatly improved campus and facilities for Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene were envisioned by ex-students and other friends of the school in the Hamlin territory were guests last Thursday evening at a fellowship dinner at the oil mill guest house given by trustees of the university.

Exes and friends were present from Hamlin, McCaulley, Rotan, Roby, Anson, Stamford, Aspermont, Lueders and Haskell.

During a fellowship period preceding the dinner, attendants were shown a panorama of the H-SU campus, showing in miniature the proposed additions of a new university chapel, student union building, fine arts buildings, dormitory sections and other improvements planned in a $2,500,000 improvement program for the pioneer Baptist institution. Architects' drawing for the chapel and student union buildings, which already are underway, were shown in colored murals.

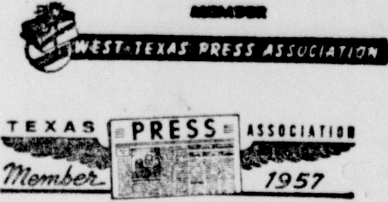

Members of the faculty and other friends of the school spoke following the dinner. Tate May, Hamlin banker, presided for the opening session. He presented Truett Latimer of Abilene, director of alumni affairs for the fund raising. Speakers on the program included Sammy Baugh, head football coach at H-SU; Bill Ledbetter, H-SU athletic director; Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president emeritus; G. W. Briggs, fund raising manager; Charles M. McLaughlin of Fort Worth, chairman of the ex-student committee; and C. M. Caldwell, major benefactor of the school; and Wayne Evans of Fort Worth, executive committee chairman of the campaign, who is business manager of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Start of the 1958-59 term for the four Hamlin white schools has been set for Tuesday, September 2, it was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook. Pre-registration of high school students will be conducted the preceding Thursday and Friday so that class schedules may be arranged.

IS AMERICAN WORLD PRESTIGE LOSING ITS FORCE?

The violent attack made against Vice President Nixon during his South American tour came as a profound shock to the American people. They happened right on our doorstep. And they were symptomatic of an anti-American feeling which has found ominous expression in many corners of the world—the Middle East, Africa, Europe.

Just how deep is the "hate America" emotion—and what are its causes? Newsweek addressed that question to its correspondents around the world. And the gist of their replies are summed up in its issue of May 26.

First of all, there is an almost incredible amount of ignorance about this country abroad. Newsweek says: "Millions, especially in Asia, are convinced that most Americans are rich beyond an opium addict's dream. Many think that negroes still exist in a near slave state in this country—and that is extremely important in a world in which two-thirds of all people belong to colored races. Great numbers have been sold the idea that American business is imperialistic and is interested only in ruthless exploitation."

Much of the existing anti-Americanism stems from circumstances beyond our control. The fact that we are rich and powerful breeds envy. Moreover, as the magazine puts it, "... much of the free world is beset by controversies of such magnitude that any position the U. S. takes on any of them is certain to displease millions of people somewhere."

Have You a Friend?

A friend is a person who is for you always, under all circumstances. He never investigates you. He likes you just as you are. He does not alter you. He likes your success, and your failure endears him more. He is better than a lover, because he is never jealous. He wants nothing from you except that you be yourself. He is the one being with whom you can feel safe.

With him you can utter year heart, its badness and its goodness. Like the shade of a great tree in the noonday heat is a friend. Like the home port with your country's flag flying after a long journey is a friend. A friend is an impregnable citadel of refuge in the strife of existence.

It is he that keeps alive your faith in human nature, that makes you believe that it is a good universe. He is the antidote to despair, the elixir of hope, the tonic for depression. You give to him without reluctance and borrow from him without embarrassment. When you are vigorous and spirited, you like to take your pleasure with him; when you are sick you want to see him; when you are dying you want him near you.

Setting Our Sights High

You have a dollar, we have a dollar, we swap; now you have our dollar, we have yours, and we are no better off.

You have an idea, we have an idea, we swap; now you have two ideas, and we have two ideas, and that's the difference.

There's another difference: A dollar does only so much; it buys so many potatoes and no more. An idea that fits your purpose may keep you in potatoes all your life, and it may incidentally build you a place to eat them in.

Right Will Come Out

If a thing is old, it is a sign that it was fit to live. Old families, old customs, old styles survive because they are fit to survive. The guarantee of continuity is quality. Submerge the good in a flood of the new, and the good will come back to join the good which the new brings with it.

Old-fashioned hospitality, old-fashioned politeness, old-fashioned honor in business had qualities of survival. These will come back. Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker.

There is, in some circles, the distrust of American leadership—a feeling that it has grown flabby and indecisive. In this area a dilemma of an extremely tough nature has arisen. Newsweek says: "On one hand, even our friends think that the development of H-bombs and missile bases smacks of saber rattling. On the other, there is a growing apprehension that we are not strong enough to meet the Soviets in a showdown."

Other influences beside controversial matters of high policy have contributed to distorted views of America abroad. One is the American motion picture—our movies account for 60 per cent of the whole world's screen time. Foreign viewers tend to take everything they see at face value—and fantasies thus become fact in their minds.

What is the answer to the anti-Americanism problem? Newsweek offers one, in three-faceted form. First, the magazine says, we need a more far-sighted foreign policy that will deal with troubles before they reach the crisis stage. Second, both government and private individuals should more carefully consider the implications of what we say and do. Third, there should be a more convincing formula which will dramatize what America is really like. Then Newsweek adds one more thought: "Something else that Americans need to do about their image abroad is to relax about it and come to terms with the idea that, in a world seething with discontent, we can't expect everyone to like us."

Deeds of the Day

The only time we have to us is furnished us today.
We must not waste while moments flee for time does not delay.

The hours of day are given once, so we must be prepared
To use our talents for the best; no effort must be spared.

When door of day is closed by night, and darkness hides the sun,
We then may count the pleasures gained from deeds which were well done.—Anon.

Editorial of the Week

THE PRICE OF RED INK

In an official report of staff of Senate-House committee on taxation predicts:

1. That the government's deficit on June 30, the end of this fiscal year, will be just under $4,000,000,000.

2. That the deficit a year hence will be more than $11,000,000,000.

So the government, between now and July 1, 1959, will be spending $15,000,000,000 it does not have. It will borrow this money. And the estimates are more likely to be underdone than excessive.

This is bad news for Mama and her market basket. It is bad news for sellers as well as buyers, because high prices restrain buying, as we lately have been seeing. This hurts business, chops off jobs and brings on exactly what has been troubling us in recent months—a recession.

Because, as everyone now knows, government deficits and borrowing make inflation. And inflation, sooner or later, wrecks our economic health. It is the surest way to national destruction. Look at France. Or China.

We have been going this way since World War II. And we have had three gentle recessions to serve as warnings. The last recession we rode out with comparative ease, because the Eisenhower administration resisted the clamor of big spending "cures." The resistance this time has been less stout. As a result the biggest deficit since 1946 faces the country in the next 13 months.

And there will be only one way to pay for it—in more dollars each worth less. Taxes are hard on the pocketbooks. But inflation is poison. It is also the price we pay for red ink in Washington.—The Fort Worth Press.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 30 years ago included the following, being news briefs taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 13, 1928:

W. L. Fletcher Jr. and family and B. H. Gardner returned Monday from a 10-day trip to the Rio Grande Valley. Fletcher is secretary of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers Association, which met at Harlingen.

Development of the Northeast Fisher County oil field, eight miles west of Hamlin, is going steadily forward with a concerted drilling campaign.

Billy Bryant was installed this week as president of the Hamlin Rotary Club, succeeding Tate May. Henry O. Cassle is new vice president and Elmer Feagan is secretary.

Men's summer suits are advertised on sale at Bryant-Link Company at $13.90 and up.

Bank statements of Hamlin's two banks this week show deposits at the Farmers & Merchants National Bank at $434,734.52 and at the First National Bank at $370,678.90.

Gladys Cassle left Thursday for the Texas irls' camp near Glenrose, where she will be gone for two weeks acting as dramatics counselor.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Items of interest in the news 20 years ago at Hamlin included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 15, 1938:

Nine Hamlin young men left Saturday afternoon for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where they will take a month's military training. They were Edwin Tims, Raymond Elkins, James Steed, John Thomas Durham, Durwood Locke, George Dean, Frank Hillyer and Raymond Garrett.

Mrs. Tom Stapleton and son, Bynum, of Sparsburg, came Saturday to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Van Huling, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snead of Amarillo were visiting friends in Hamlin this week. Snead formerly was in the compress business at Hamlin.

Little Anna Margaret McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McBride, was operated on last Friday for appendicitis at Abilene Hospital.

TEN YEARS AGO.

From the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 23, 1948, the following news briefs of 10 years ago are reprinted:

Normal interest is being manifested by voters of the Hamlin territory in the election Saturday.

The Mighty Mice, baseball team composed of Hamlin youths being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has won two out of the three games played so far.

Johnnie Agnew, farming southeast of town, brought in the first maize of the season Tuesday. The harvest this summer is expected to be good.

Mrs. Bud Trotter and Priscilla are visiting relatives this week at Odessa.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Files of five years ago reveal the following news items of the community five years ago, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 24, 1953:

New dressing rooms and ticket booths at the Pied Pied Stadium of Hamlin High School, costing $18,000, will get underway next week by T. E. Shelburne & Sons, contractors.

Crops in the area are growing fast following recent rains, but now the threat of insects hangs over the crops.

Hamlin telephone workers last Friday participated in a regional vote on strike proposals. The vote overwhelmingly favored the proposal, but no strike plans have as yet been announced, The Herald understands.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News events in the area of one year ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Herald dated July 18, 1957:

Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department has answered only 14 fire calls this year the first six months of the year, with insured losses of $2,247.81, reports Fire Chief Jack White.

Insects are posing a dire threat to cotton crops in the area, many farmers are busy poisoning the pests.

Mike Brandon, Harry Bob Martin and Davey Weaver, Hamlin FFA boys, and Harold Eades, one of the advisors, are attending the state FFA convention at Fort Worth this week.

Texas Tidelands Suit Is Not Settled, Congressman Burleson Reminds Area

Surprising as it may seem, the old issue of the Texas tidelands is not settled, reminds Congressman Omar Burleson in his weekly news release to The Herald. The release continues: In 1953, after 16 years of effort, the Congress finally passed the so-called tidelands bill.

This supposedly settled the proposition that when Texas came into the union, it reserved for itself 10½ miles into the Gulf of Mexico. Ordinarily, the ownership of a state extends three miles seaward. But the 10½-mile boundary ownership was written into the law by the Congress, and confirmed the annexation agreement by which Texas became a state of the union.

The federal government, in violation of this provision admitting Texas as a state, contended that the Gulf of Mexico came under federal jurisdiction beyond the three-mile limit. The United States Supreme Court upheld this contention on the part of the federal government.

In 1953, the Congress supposedly settled the jurisdictional question by clearly confirming Texas' claim to 10½ miles.

Now, the attorney general of the United States has filed a 425-page brief, again contesting Texas' title to the submerged lands between the three-mile and the 10½-mile limit.

President Eisenhower clearly stated his sentiment in favor of Texas at the time the Congress acted in 1953. It becomes a strange paradox that his attorney general claim of the state of Texas is a violation on the part of the federal government of its agreement with the state of Texas. If the federal government had a legal right prior to 1953 to the submerged lands of Texas, certainly it has had no right since. The act of the attorney general will, of course, be resisted with every possible effort.

JUST BLEATING.

Two-Hour Film to Be Seen July 24 at Nazarene Church

Presentation of an outstanding religious film, "Wine of Morning," has been set for next Thursday evening at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene, according to the pastor, Rev. Bill Hanna. The two-hour, full color picture is based on photographs by Bob Jones Jr. It was prepared by Bob Jones University at Greenville, South Carolina.

Arrangements for the film were made by Norma Lee Garrett, Hamlin girl who has been a student at the South Carolina school. The story of the film is of the bloodshed and shipwreck, of intrigue, of murder, of love and redemption. It is a panorama of exciting scenes moving in flashing color from Nazareth to Cana, of Galilee, Capernaum, Jerusalem, Cyprus, Antioch and Csesarea. With its huge cast, magnificent settings and gorgeous costumes, it is undoubtedly the greatest spectacle in the history of evangelical films, Hanna asserts.

The main purpose of education is to teach people to think.

Old Glory Section Gets Good Rains, Other News Notes from That Vicinity

By Clarice Leverett.

Rains fell over this area last Sunday morning with amounts ranging from two inches to 2.6 inches on the Lynn Flowers farm, five miles southeast of Old Glory. The moisture was greatly appreciated and will benefit the feed and cotton crops, which were badly in need of rain. Farmers, despite dry weather in June, no rain and insects, have been spraying their cotton to control insects.

MRS. ZELMA HULSE, MRS. JOE NORTON
Hamlin Representatives

An Open Letter to Jerry Holleman President, Texas AFL-CIO Delegate-At-Large, DOT

Dear Mr. Holleman:

Do you really mean what you said publicly last Sunday?

Do you really mean that successful men shouldn't have anything to do with our public affairs in Washington? Do you really mean that our public offices should be turned over to men who have never made a success of their own careers?

Do you Mr. Holleman?

That is what you were saying in your attack on Senator Blakley. You were saying that it was perfectly all right for union leaders in Washington, New York, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other big cities to pour money into Texas to elect a man of their choosing. You were saying that the workingman is against success.

We can't believe you know the workingman, sir. We don't believe you know Texans either, Mr. Holleman.

All of us are young Texans. We have just graduated from our Texas colleges. Our parents are workingmen and women. We know they want us to be successful—and we want to live up to their expectations and justify their many sacrifices to help us attain college educations.

Nobody else but you ever told us success was wrong, Mr. Holleman. Men like Bill Blakley built Texas and built America. Along with many, many others, he has helped keep Texas growing and prospering. You and many of your fellow union leaders might not even be here in Texas if it had not been for business leaders like Bill Blakley.

While Mr. Blakley has been building, what has your candidate been doing, Mr. Holleman?

Since most of us were only a year old he has been running for office and he hasn't yet received a majority of the votes. On his fifth attempt—in a special election where there was no run-off—two out of every three Texans voted for his opponents.

Mr. Holleman, your candidate has a record of failures unequalled in Texas.

If you expect young people to follow your leadership, Mr. Holleman, do you really mean to tell them that a long record of failure will win more for them than a record of outstanding success?

Mr. Holleman, your organization is quick to criticize Mr. Blakley for being a success in business. What about the AFL-CIO's own record in business?

Would the hundred thousand members of the unions who lost their life's savings because they took the word of AFL-CIO leaders on IOT stock agree with you that business success is bad?

Mr. Blakley has been successful in business, Mr. Holleman, while your organization has been a party to the biggest failure in Texas history.

You attack success, Mr. Holleman, from a record of failure. Which leadership do you think Texans, young and old, want to follow? Your kind or the kind offered by Bill Blakley?

The kind of Texas we want is the kind of Texas our parents helped to give us. We want to keep it that way for ourselves and our children. We don't want the conditions which the political labor bosses have created in other states, Mr. Holleman. We like what we have here—a chance to make good—just as Bill Blakley has done—and we believe he is the man who can help us do just that.

That is why we are supporting him and will continue to do so. For he is the dream-come-true which we and every other Texas boy and girl have had since we were a year old—when your candidate began running for office.

We believe that Bill Blakley will be the kind of Senator who will make every Texan, including you, Mr. Holleman, be proud to say "I am a Texan."

We are proud to be Texans and we're going to be even prouder when Mr. Blakley goes back to Washington. And you can be sure he's going, Mr. Holleman, because you just can't fool enough Texans enough of the time.

Sincerely yours,

Fred Talkington

When and Where to Buy" Used Demonstration Topic for Women

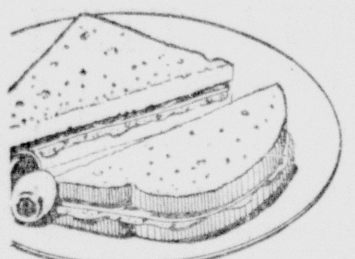

Attention was called to rules that should be observed for shopping for self, home, for the household, leisure and car.

Alertness and planning are essential for good shopping, the agent told the leaders. "It is on small day-to-day purchases that you spend much of your income and have the most frequent opportunities to make your money do more for you, it was pointed out. By shopping and planning wisely you not only receive better value for your money, but can actually save a substantial amount of cash over a period of time. The best buy is a product which, though not necessarily the best, satisfies the needs or cluster of needs of the individual consumer at a cost, not necessarily the cheapest, equal to or less than the money allotted through the budget to meet the need or cluster of needs."

Tasty Fudge Sauce Can Be Made Easily

For luscious hot fudge sauce, heat five tablespoons of water and four tablespoons of butter in the top of a double boiler until the butter melts. Add one package of fudge and frosting mix and cook over boiling water for five minutes.

Stir in one cup of miniature marshmallows and one-half cup of chopped nuts. Serve over vanilla ice cream. The recipe makes about one and one-half cups of sauce.

Handy, thrifty... and oh, so good!

Sure-footed Man Serves Texas

The colorful language of the ranch and trail seems to fit Bill Blakley, who made his start in life as a working cowboy. He still rides and ropes with the hands on his ranch at roundup time.

Speaking of Blakley's service as U. S. Senator in 1957, the Dallas News said: "... If he was as unassuming as an old boot, it was nevertheless a well polished boot that never wobbled or wandered from its purposeful path. For this man Blakley is a sure-footed man who knows exactly where he stands and what he believes."

Texas will vote to return William A. Blakley to the Senate on July 26 because he truly represents the spirit, traditions and views of all Texas.

New Medications for Skin Help Clear Up Blemishes of Face

Teens bothered with skin problems dread the arrival of summertime when sun-back dresses, halter tops and bathing suits all expose possible trouble areas.

Many girls know that if they have a tendency to break out with lumps and bumps on their faces, they are apt to develop a few elsewhere—on the chest, the nape of the neck and even across the shoulders.

The good news about this annual summer problem is that now there is a preparation which does a fast job in helping to clear up pimples and blackheads on any part of the body.

The medication goes after the pesky spots in three ways—it soothes, it helps to heal, and thanks to its fresh color, it hides. Just a touch of this soothing preparation provides a flattering film so inconspicuous that it can be worn both day and night.

Since it is greaseless and stainless, the medication is safe to apply on the body without fear of staining pretty clothes.

The preparation combines the special ingredients prescribed by leading dermatologists for the treatment of pimples and acne in an oil-absorbing base. The combined action of these ingredients softens and dissolves the affected skin tissues and penetrates deep into the pores to help along the healing process.

It also loosens blackheads from underneath so that they actually seem to float out with a regular soap-and-water washing. And as a safeguard against further trouble, the medication is an antiseptic that halts the spread of surface bacteria.

Make Child's Gifts Lifetime Investment

A planned program of gift giving can represent an investment in the future for your child.

For instance, give a baby girl a piece of sterling silverware from her first birthday anniversary on and by the time she is 18 she will have a solid silver flatware service.

Not only is this a good investment for a child but it helps her to appreciate and become aware of beauty and its partnership with utility and every-day living.

New Equipment and Time Savers Help Mothers Travel with Baby in Luxury

Young travelers should hit the road in comfort this season, if mom is on her toes. And what mom would ignore all the new equipment and time savers that will make her daily outing or vacation an adventure, not a chore?

Take the matter of baby's bath, for instance: Why not pack one of the small portable, plastic pools, ideal for bathing baby in a motel or hotel? Such a pool is handy, too, on a warm day to cool baby off at a resort or picnic.

Other handy items found in stores these days include a plastic toilet for the older child and plastic tongs for rinsing out diapers in strange places. Just clamp the tongs on the diaper, turn the tongs and squeeze the diaper dry.

Baby will be at his happy best with a simple type of home routine—meals, naps and play at regular hours. He'd like his bath session unhurried, even if mom is anxious to get it finished. After the bath, rub creamy white baby lotion over your little traveler to keep his skin from drying and chafing.

A baby kit is handy in the car, in addition to the items you have packed for evening use. The kit that contains lotion, powder, oil, cleansing tissues, cotton buds and a hair brush is ideal for freshening baby as you travel.

If baby is going to the beach, you'll need a few extras for his protection from the sun. A head covering with a brim will protect small heads and keep direct sunlight from young beach baskers' eyes. Mother should be equipped with an alarm clock for timing sun sessions, too.

County 4-H Club Dress Revue Slated at Anson Church July 23

Annual dress revue of Jones County 4-H Club girls will be held Wednesday, July 23, at 2:30 p. m. at the fellowship hall of the Anson First Baptist Church. The revue is being sponsored by the Anson Chamber of Commerce, according to Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent. Donald Page, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will present the awards.

Clothing workshops have been conducted. Adults assisting the 4-H Club girls were Mrs. R. C. Huber, Mrs. Howard Roberts, Mrs. Woodrow Bagley and Mrs. Bernice Bradshaw of Anson; Mrs. Eben Shuquist, Mrs. O. L. Putman, Mrs. M. R. Huffaker, Mrs. Cliff Garrett and Mrs. Frank Agnew of Anson; and Mrs. AB Hunter Jr. of Noodle.

Dresses, blouses and skirts will be modeled in a nine, 10 and 11-year-old group; 12 and 13-year-olds; and 14 years and older. Alice Kemp, Fisher County home demonstration agent, and Barbara McAnnelly, home demonstration agent of Haskell County, will judge the garments.

Members of the Ruth Sunday School Class of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Clay Tuesday evening in a monthly business and social session.

Mrs. L. H. Clark, vice president, had charge of the business session. Mrs. A. G. Anderson brought the devotional from the fourth chapter of Ephesians, reading the entire chapter. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. V. Maden.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to five members and the hostess, Mrs. Sid Clay, and four visitors.

Next meeting of the class will be at 2:00 p. m. August 14, in the home of Mrs. L. H. Clark, it was announced.

Sheer Fabrics Need Special Care While Sewing, Says Expert

Net, tulle, lace, chiffon and other sheer fabrics need careful handling when sewing.

Pin these materials to tissue paper before you pin them on the pattern or cut. This prevents them from slipping and sliding under your shears. Then leave the pattern pieces in place when you baste and sew.

This means you stitch through the two layers of tissue with the fabric sandwiched in between. You sacrifice the seam allowances on your pattern by doing this, but you seams will not pucker.

TELEPHONE TALK

by Truman Black, Manager

New Wire Chief at Hamlin

Edward G. Holzmann has been named wire chief in Hamlin for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. He replaces E. W. (Andy) Anderson, who has been promoted to the position of installation foreman in Abilene.

In his new position Holzmann will have charge of all the telephone plant operations in Hamlin and in other towns served by the Hamlin exchange headquarters.

This includes installation and repair of telephones in several exchanges and the maintenance of the many miles of outside wire and telephone cable.

Hamlin's new wire chief began his telephone career in 1946 as a lineman. One year later he was advanced to the position of construction foreman. In 1957 he became a facilities engineer in Midland, a position he held until his appointment here.

Outside of the telephone business, Holzmann's principal interests are hunting, fishing and playing softball.

He is married, has two children and is a member of the Church of Christ.

Tin for Businessmen

Ever try answering your out-of-town mail with long distance calls instead of letters?

Nothing can beat long distance when it comes to getting things done.

Just the other day, for example, I had three or four letters on my desk, all waiting to be answered. I just couldn't seem to get to them. Finally, I picked up the telephone and called the people. In 20 minutes I was through. I must have saved myself at least an hour's work.

Try doing it that way yourself. When you do, I think you'll like the quick action you get—as well as the small amount it costs.

Dress Up Your Kitchen

A lot of people who have remodeled their kitchens add a finishing touch by ordering a wall telephone in color to blend with the new color scheme.

You don't have to remodel, of course... a wall telephone in color will brighten your present kitchen—let you reach for the telephone and bake a cake at the same time.

There are seven attractive colors... light gray, cherry red, white, moss green, ivory, pastel yellow, and light beige. Table model telephones are available in all these colors, too, plus aqua blue and rose pink. Call the telephone company today to get more color in your kitchen—or any other room in your home.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Austin.—In 1876 a wagon with a team of oxen was good transportation in Texas. But on today's city streets and super highways the ox wagon would be just a traffic bottleneck.

Some Texans now are saying Texas' 82-year-old ox wagon constitution is a bottleneck on the road to development of dynamic twentieth century government.

Constitutional revision is not one of the currently sizzling campaign issues. But, quietly and patiently, numerous people in government, in the bar, in professional and civic groups, the press and in private and public educational institutions are plugging away in a make-haste-slowly campaign. Principal objective now is to get Texans thinking about what they want and need in a state constitution today.

Their campaign gained official blessing last year when the Legislature passed a resolution instructing the legislative council to do research on the subject and report back in 1959. An 18-member citizens advisory committee was appointed to counsel with the legislative study group. Dean Robert G. Storey of the Southern Methodist University law school is chairman; C. Y. Mills of Mission and Mrs. Horton Wayne Smith of Austin, vice chairmen; and Dan Moody Jr. of Austin, secretary.

Next meeting of the advisory group is to be held in September. Right now, one member admits that progress toward revision is itself moving at an ox wagon pace. Reason is that those concerned feel strongly that any action should be preceded by an exhaustive, professional research job. This takes money.

Legislative Council, with a staff of seven, and 11 studies under way, cannot go all out on this one thing, but is doing some fact gathering during the summer. Both council and committee hope to get money for the work, perhaps by next year, from the Legislature or some private foundation.

Advocates of constitutional revision advance these points, among others, as reasons for concern:

1. It's a staggering document, 47,000 words long, patched up with 133 amendments. If nine more proposed amendments are approved next November it will be 54,000 words. Much of it is regarded by lawyers as properly belonging in the statutes rather than in a basic document like the constitution. Much is cited as totally useless, such as provisions for repelling Indian raids.

2. Like Topsy, Texas' huge conglomeration of agencies, departments, commissions and divisions "just grew." It is all so loosely put together, say critics, that folks do not know who to blame when things do not suit them. Same indictment is applied to the fiscal set-up. It's a billion-dollar-a-year business, but control is mince-meated among many. State has more than 100 special funds, representing about 85 per cent of state revenue. These cannot be touched by the Legislature, even if they are not needed for the purpose for which they are earmarked and are desperately needed elsewhere.

3. Another argument made is that increasing concentration of government in Washington can be halted only if state governments are sufficiently vigorous and adaptable to meet people's changing and growing needs. Some suggest that Texas' present constitution may be a "strait jacket" on state government.

High Cost of Driving.—Texas drivers will have to "pay the piper" next year in higher auto insurance.

State Insurance Board has announced that, effective August 1, auto insurance rates will be substantially higher in most parts of Texas. Average hike will be 32 per cent on comprehensive coverage, 19 per cent on liability and 17 per cent on collision. In Dallas County, for example, a policy that now costs $108 will jump to $142.

Premiums paid on the old rate schedule have not nearly met accident claims, said Penn Jackson, chairman of the insurance board. He attributed the insurance companies' "tremendous losses" to four factors:

1. An increasing number of collisions.
2. Higher cost of repairing today's swanky cars.
3. Higher cost of hospital and medical care.
4. Generosity of juries in awarding damages to claimants.

Auto owners, said Jackson, must realize they set their own insurance rates by the way they drive.

Water Future.—Hope for an

Blakley Story Is Typically Texan

The typical American story is of the poor boy who made good through his own efforts. This is the story of Bill Blakley, born in a covered wagon while his parents were on their way to homestead in Oklahoma territory. He has come a long way in 59 years. Said the Austin American-Statesman, when William A. Blakley announced for the Senate:

"... He was a top-hand cowboy; he was a crackerjack bank clerk; he was an exceptionally good accountant and lawyer. We have an idea that he is going to be a refreshing, able political candidate. He would make a great United States Senator."

Vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 — an able man whose only ambition is to serve all of Texas.

ever more prosperous Texas is found in the recently completed state and federal survey of Texas' water resources and needs.

Contents of the study were made public by U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson who requested the survey a year ago. Texas Board of Water Engineers and three federal agencies collaborated in compiling data.

Each major river basin was studied and the possibility of switching flood waters from one basin to another discussed at length.

"The scope of the economic impact of large scale water exchange in Texas is impressive," said the report. "If exploited to its logical conclusion, there is solid evidence to indicate that the increase in Texas income would be of great magnitude."

On Fishing for Industry.—A how-to-do-it booklet for communities wanting to attract new industry is now in circulation.

It was published by the new Texas Industrial Commission with private donations. In 66 pages, the book tells how a community should analyze itself, correct any inadequacies and bring all good points to the fore in a promotion effort.

Commission members expressed hope that passage next November of a constitutional amendment to permit use of state funds for advertising would make continuation of their efforts possible.

Hand Off.—State Board of Education has gone on record as officially—and positively—opposing any plan to tamper with the permanent school fund.

Last Legislature voted to make one per cent of the permanent fund available annually for current expenses. State Auditor

C. H. Cavness has proposed making part of future income from school lands available for pressing present needs and putting only part into the multi-million-dollar school trust fund. But the school board declared the fund should be "inviolate."

At the same meeting the board learned the school fund had run

Important Announcement from SAFeway!

SAVE-A-TAPE PLAN TO BE DISCONTINUED IN FAVOR OF A NEW PROGRAM!!

Over a year ago Safeway introduced in this area the "Save-a-Tape" plan which has been the source of many useful and desirable gifts for our customers. We believe that the time has come to change promotional plans... For this reason, we now announce that...

Effective Saturday night, July 19, we will no longer issue green register tapes for premiums. You will have a full four weeks beyond this time—until Saturday, August 16, to be exact—in which to redeem the tapes you hold for valuable premiums.

HERE ARE DETAILS ON REDEEMING YOUR TAPES

1. No need to hurry in redeeming your tapes. You have until Saturday, August 16 to redeem them.
2. There will be a wide assortment of premiums in our stores. New items have been added to increase the selection available to you.
3. If you haven't sufficient tapes for the premium of your choice, arrangements have been made by which you can make up the difference in cash.
4. Tapes may be redeemed for purchases instead of premiums, at the rate of 70¢ per $35.00 worth of tapes.

REDEEM YOUR TAPES. TAPES WILL HAVE NO VALUE AFTER AUGUST 16, 1958

Hamlin Barbers Go to Convention at Dallas

Jimmy Wright and Bonnie Bingham of the Ideal and Hub Hopper of the Imperial Barber Shop attended the State Barbers Association convention at Dallas July 14 at the Adolphus Hotel.

The new association, recently chartered, tabulated 600 members and other guests. Outstanding speakers highlighted the program. Next year's convention will be at the Hilton Hotel in San Antonio on July 19 and 20, it was decided at the Dallas meeting.

Freight Carloadings For Santa Fe Climb

Freight carloadings for the Santa Fe Railway System for the week ending July 5, 1958, were 33,202 compared with 21,653 for the same week a year ago, reflecting the biggest gain in many months. Cars received from connections totaled 11,010 compared with 11,273 for the same week in 1957.

Total cars moved were 44,212 compared with 32,926 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 39,562 cars in the preceding week this year.

Jackie Drummond of Hamlin Among Texas Tech ROTC Group in Desert

Jackie W. Drummond, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drummond of Hamlin and student at Texas Technological College at Lubbock, is among Tech students doing special training this summer at Williams Air Force Base in Arizona.

Learning to exist in 112-degree desert heat and flying in jets on gunnery missions are a part of the routine for 14 Texas Tech Air Force ROTC cadets at the base.

They are nearing the end of four weeks of summer training with approximately 200 other AF ROTC cadets from 41 other colleges and universities.

Commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Edwin L. Heller, veteran World War II and Korean conflict ace, the cadets have also experienced ejection seat rides and altitude chamber "flights" in addition to the usual classroom work and rigid inspections at Williams.

Lieutenant Colonel Newton B. Wilkerson, commander of the AF ROTC at Texas Tech, is training officers for the summer camp. During their summer tour, the cadets are familiarized with all facets of military life and AF training they will receive after they are commissioned.

Those who have signed up for flying training received a preview of their future military life with jet indoctrination rides and gunnery mission flights with Williams AFB pilots.

Survival training—in both water and desert—is part of a jet pilot's schooling and the cadets experienced a brief taste of both. After a march into the furnace like Arizona desert, they learned to get water by squeezing the juices from cactus as part of their 24-hour trek.

Meals featuring snake, lizard, road runner and rabbit as the main course were the rule while they rested under lean-to tents from the stem core of Saguaro cacti draped with parachute canopies.

During the trek cadets were "bombed" with flour bags and "strafed" by Lieutenant Colonel Heller flying an F-86 low over their camp site.

Water survival techniques were practiced in the cadet swimming pool.

A fire power demonstration at Gila Bend gunnery range featured the F-101 Voodoo in action and a display of combat performance techniques of F-101, F-86 and F-84 jet aircraft of the cadets an idea of what they may fly in the future.

Their final days of training will be highlighted by a tour of the North American aircraft plant in Los Angeles California, this week.

After completing the senior year of academic and AF ROTC work at Tech next spring, the cadets will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the U. S. Air Force Reserve. They will serve three or five-year active duty tours, depending on the type of assignment they have requested.

SUBTLE APPROACH.

"I've decided on a name for the baby," said the expectant mother. "I shall call her Minerva."

The young husband didn't care very much for her selection but, being a tactful fellow, was far too wise to object verbally.

"Fine," he agreed. "That's a fine name. The first girl I ever loved was called Minerva, and the name revives happy memories."

There was a brief pause, then: "We'll call her Lucy Jane; I think I like that better," said the young wife.

MISS ROSEBUD—This is Jill Jordan, 19-year-old Victoria College student, who will be "Miss Rosebud" in the Miss Texas Pageant at Amarillo in August.

Royal Ambassador Camps for Baptist Youth Start Soon

Royal Ambassador camps for boys are coming up next on the schedule for the Lueders Baptist Encampment youth camps of District 17, and numbers of Hamlin area youngsters will participate. The Intermediate RA camp is slated for July 21-24, and the Junior RA camp July 28-31.

Rev. Grady Allison, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Munday, will be director for both camps. Ages of the intermediates are 13 through 16 years of age; of juniors, nine through 12 years of age.

For the intermediate camp Rev. DeWitt Chandler of Clyde will be camp pastor, and Rev. J. Ulman Moss of Venezuela missionary.

Sports director will be Vonze Walters of Cross Plains; music director, Bill Keck of Haskell; and pianist, Edwin Peoples of Abilene.

The mission book teachers will be Milton Thompson of Hawley, B. F. Risinger of Munday, Edwin Peoples of Abilene and Bill Beatty of Anson. Ranking class instructors will be Claude Slater of Rule, Billy Burke of Girard, L. D. Regeon of Haskell and Avery Sullivan of Sweetwater.

The day's program will include swimming in the new swimming pool, camp fire services by the river, baseball, track and crafts during the recreation periods.

A recognition evening will be held on Wednesday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the gymnasium and slides and missionary films will be a part of the evening programs. The camp pastor will preach at 11:00 a. m. Mission study and ranking classes will be held each morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Willis and son, Keith, of Orange are vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Cooper, and other relatives in the Hamlin community.

Floyd E. Gauntt Go To Europe for Two-Month Planned Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Gauntt of Hamlin, formerly of Rule, were scheduled to leave Wednesday for a two-month European vacation. The couple will be accompanied by Mrs. Indle Branton of Rochester, Gauntt's sister, and Mrs. Guy Speck of Carlsbad, New Mexico, sister of Mrs. Gauntt.

Their two-month tour, planned by Gay Travel Service, will include visits to 12 countries.

Before boarding the S.S. Atlantic, the Gauntts visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Parks, and eight-month-old granddaughter, Susan Janet. Mr. and Mrs. Parks moved to New York City recently from Snyder, where he was counselor at Snyder High School. Parks is now studying for his doctorate at Columbia University.

The couple formerly resided at Rule, where Gauntt owned a furniture store and funeral home for 30 years.

Edward G. Holzmamm Named Wire Chief of Hamlin Phone Plant

Edward G. Holzmamm last week was named wire chief of Southwest Bell Telephone Company for the Hamlin and neighboring territory. Holzmamm, 35, (Andy) Anderson, has been promoted to the position of wire chief at Hamlin for the past year and one-half years. Holzmamm will have charge of the telephone plant operations in Hamlin and in other towns served by the Hamlin exchange headquarters. This includes installation and repair of telephones in several exchanges and maintenance of the many miles of outside wire and telephone cable. The new wire chief began his telephone career in 1946 as a line man. One year later he was advanced to the position of construction foreman. In 1957 he became a facilities engineer at Midland, a position he held until his appointment here. Holzmamm and his wife have two daughters, Janis, age four, and Nancy, age eight.

John Richey Tells Lions Club About Trip to Boys' State

One of the most thrilling and educational times of his life was spent recently by John Richey, Hamlin High School junior, at the annual Boys' State demonstration at Austin, when he spoke Tuesday at noon at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house. Young Richey, son of Mrs. Jack Richey, was sponsored by Hamlin Rotary Club under auspices of the Sylvester American Legion past. With 521 boys from all portions of Texas attending the practical demonstration of governmental operations during a week of elections and office functionings, the young men received first hand information of how state, district, county and city governments are operated, Richey said. He was elected sheriff of a mythical Dunning County during the spirited election campaigns.

Outstanding governmental men of Texas spoke at sessions of the Boys' State, which kept attendees going from 6:30 in the morning till 9:30 at night, the Hamlin junior asserted.

A Lions Club picnic for members and their families was tentatively set for August 26, according to Stan Sheppard, president.

Besides Richey, and Georganna Fitzgerald, who played the piano in the absence of Mrs. Joe McCrary, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included Truett May of California, and Edward G. Holzmamm, new wire chief of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hamlin.

YEW FOR STEW MAY MEAN PROFIT—J. W. Owen of Dallas admires a pearl he found when he opened a can of oyster stew. A nocturnal yearning for a bowl of his favorite stew sent Owen to the store where he purchased the can for 36 cents. Opening the can he discovered the pearl, which he first thought was a stone. A jewelry official said he would send the pearl to an appraising firm in New York to determine its worth. Owen hopes to parlay the 36 cents into a neat profit.

Nearly 100 County Farmers Attend Rat Control Clinic

Ninety-two Jones County farmers attended the rat control demonstrations held in the county last week by County Agent Kirby Clayton and Sid Knight of the Rodent Control Service in Fort Worth, and Harris Wright, manager of the county Farm Bureau. Over 1,000 pounds of fumarin rat bait were distributed to farmers over the county at the demonstration sites.

Knight explained to the group of Jones County farmers that rats are becoming more of a problem over the state due to the large grain crops and the bountiful supply of moisture during the past year. He urged farmers to join in the rat control campaign to help eradicate the pest from this county. Knight explained that the control campaign could not be too effective unless it was county-wide and the majority of farmers join in to help eradicate them.

A grown rat will eat, destroy or otherwise damage $9 worth of feed or property a year, and at the rate they are multiplying, they will destroy a large portion of the county's grain crop unless a strict control program is followed.

For those who missed the demonstration but would like to have help, they are urged to contact the county agent's office.

No other rat control demonstrations are planned in Jones County for the immediate future, Clayton asserts.

VISIT KIN AT POST. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young spent Friday and Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Burton Hill and children, Jess and Tonja, at Post.

Packers and Feeder Buyers Maintain Good Demand for Cattle at Fair Prices

Cattle and calves opened about steady at Fort Worth Monday but weakness developed on cows shortly after the opening and sales were around 50 cents lower by the time a clearance was completed, according to the weekly market summary of Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. His release continues: Liberal water fills offset some of the apparently lower offers in most cases. Fed steers and yearlings sold on a steady to weaker basis, spots 25 cents or more lower. Most of the fed cattle were of the short fed or warmed-up grasser variety and attracted about equal bids in many cases from packers and feeder buyers.

Slaughter calves were steady to weaker, compared with the high close of last week, as national packers exerted pressure from the start on that class. Stocker and feeder cattle and calves were firm throughout. Bulls were steady to stronger, some topby bulls up to $22.50 or 50 cents above most recent sales.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cleared at $17 to $24. Fat cows cashed at $17.50 to $20.50, and canners and cutters drew $11 to $17.50. Bulls earned $18 to $22.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $24 to $28, and common and medium sorts brought $17 to $24. Culls sold at $14 to $17. Medium to good stocker steer calves cleared at $25 to $32, a few to $33. Heifer calves ranged from $29 downward. Stocker steer yearlings of medium to good grades sold from $22 to $27, with some choice lighter weights to $27.50 and $28. Stocker heifers sold around $24 to $25 and downward.

Slaughter lambs were weak to 50 cents or more lower, and the top was $1 under the highest price last week. Strictly choice lambs were very scarce. Yearling wethers were weak to 50 cents lower. Older sheep and goats were steady.

Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $20 to $22, and cull to medium lambs sold from $12 to $19. Stocker and feeder lambs ranged from $17 to $20, and shown feeders sold from $18 down.

Good to choice yearlings ranged from $17 to $18, some 118-pound yearlings at $17. Cull to medium yearlings sold from $12 to $15. Slaughter ewes cashed at $7 to $7.50. Slaughter goats sold around $7. Two-year-old wethers ranged from $14 downward. Old bucks brought $5 to $6. Broken mouthed ewes sold at $11, and fairly low mouthed ewes sold at $14. Young ewes were scarce.

Hogs sold 50 cents lower as choice hogs cashed at $23.25 to $23.75, and medium to good butchers cashed at $21 to $23. Pigs drew $20 to $22. Sows sold from $18 to $21, a few choice lightweights to $21.50.

Hitchcock Film to Play This Week at Hamlin Theaters

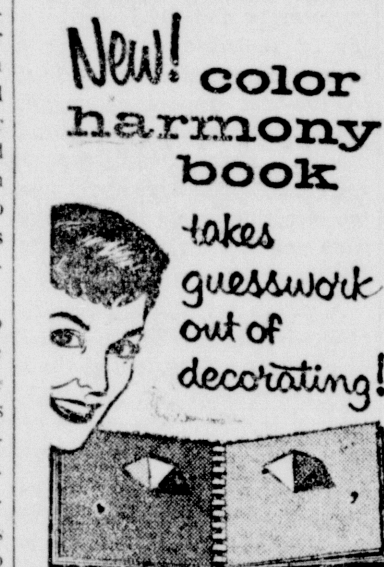

With the masterfully conceived spine tingler, "Vertigo," Alfred Hitchcock once again affirms his standing as movieland's king of the suspense drama, and with the potent marquee combination of Kim Novak and James Stewart, the film should be one of the year's top draws at the box office. It plays Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Ferguson and Wednesday and Thursday at the Drive-In Theater.

Photographed in San Francisco in exquisite color, the authentic backgrounds, including the famed Ernies restaurant, Mission Dolores, and Nob Hill, lend added impact to the tautly drawn screen play by Alec Coppel and Samuel Taylor which manages to tell three distinct types of story in this one picture without a moment of audience confusion.

Through it all runs Hitchcock's superb directorial hand, gleaming from a meticulously chosen cast top performances. Stewart gives his finest screen portrayal to date in an exacting role that keeps him on camera almost continuously, with Miss Novak providing a solid bit of thespian art that should establish her as something more than one of filmland's glamor girls. Barbara Bel Geddes handles her rather limited role as Stewart's practical minded girl

VITAL SCENE from Alfred Hitchcock's suspenseful drama, "Vertigo" above shows James Stewart and Kim Novak as they play leading roles. The film is showing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Ferguson Theater and Wednesday and Thursday at the Hamlin Drive-In.
